ED TERRY IS RELEASED BY COURT MOVE

Affidavit Against Him and Mrs. Kibler is Withdrawn

COURT READY TO TRY CASE

Judge Poling Scores Those Who Are Responsible

Sheriff E. E. Terry, Van Wert-co, cited on an adultery charge, was released Tuesday morning without trial.

Affidavit filed against him by Mrs. J. A. Swihart, 1014 W. High-st, was withdrawn by the woman.

Compassion for the wife and daughters of the accused man was the reason for her withdrawal, she told the court.

Her action, claiming while tentative jurors were in the box and court ready for trial, threw a bombshell into court and was bitterly scored by Judge Neil R. Poling of Criminal court.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES
Sensational charges against Sheriff Terry and Mrs. Ovie Kibler, also of Van Wert, were filed Sept. 17 by Mrs. Sam Plummer. The following day they were withdrawn by Mrs. Plummer who charged "she signed affidavits for use of Governor Donahoe only."

On Wednesday, Sept. 19, Mrs. J. A. Swihart appeared in criminal court and attached her signature to affidavits against the pair, charging them with adultery.

Tuesday morning criminal court buzzed with excitement. Tentative jurors were present. Attorneys Kern and Wright, of Van Wert, and Attorney H. O. Bentley, Lima, were in court for the defendant.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES
Solicitor Paul Landis had the state's case prepared and witnesses were ready to offer testimony. A large number of Van Wert citizens, among them members of the Terry family, jammed the court room.

Judge Poling took his seat at the bench. Court stenographer had his note book before him.

Judge Poling told of the charge and called Mrs. Swihart to the court. She then said she wanted to withdraw the charge.

"Sheriff Terry and I want to withdraw my charge," Mrs. Swihart told the court in a low voice as the spectators were struck dumb at the sudden turn in what was expected to be one of the most dramatic trials in the history of Lima criminal court.

Judge Poling granted withdrawal but only after had scored Mrs. Swihart and others for "making a clearing house and a joke out of the city court."

ONLY STEP POSSIBLE
Judge Poling's action was the only step permissible under the state law applicable to criminal courts.

"It is truly a deplorable condition when jurors are on hand and attorneys are here for a prosecuting witness to withdraw charges. Such action bears a resemblance of making a plaything of this court," Judge Poling said.

He further scored the woman and others for their apparent lack of appreciation of the seriousness of filing charges and then failing to support the prosecution. He also advocated the appointment of a police prosecutor to sign all affidavits, thus placing prosecutions "entirely in hands of police and the court."

Solicitor Landis took no action for filing of new charges against Terry. When asked what he thought of the turn he had nothing to say.

Terry had nothing to say. When court adjourned he smilingly left the court room and returned to his official duties at Van Wert.

NIGHT SERVICE PLANNED ON LONDON-PARIS AIR ROUTE

LONDON—Plans have been completed for the inauguration of night flying service between London and Paris for carrying passengers and mail. The scheme is the latest addition to the popular Paris-London service and like all the English services will be subsidized by the government.

This improvement was urged by the post office officials as necessary if the air mail idea is to be developed adequately. Some months ago the air ministry carried out right-flying tests with much success and of the London-Paris airway there is at present, a lighting arrangement on a fairly extensive scale.

PRESIDENT OF FINDLAY COLLEGE AT KIWANIS MEET

William Harris Guyer, D. D., president of Findlay college, delivered an interesting address on the subject "Sustaining Enthusiasm," before the Kiwanis club at the Barry hotel Tuesday noon. Dr. Guyer based his remarks on enthusiasm and confidence, declaring a man should have faith in himself, faith in his fellow men and faith in the cause in which he is engaged.

Dr. Guyer declared that men, no matter in what station in life, will not succeed in any calling unless he has sustained enthusiasm. He criticized the man who journeys through life aimlessly, without attempting to accomplish bigger and better results.

FIRE ALARM BOX USELESS IN BLAZE AT CENTRAL HIGH

WHEN fire threatened Central high school shortly before noon yesterday and endangered the lives of 1,000 students, only the telephone was available for turning in the alarm, calling the city fire department.

The alarm box at the corner of McDonell and High-sts, the call box for the largest uptown school, was out of order. This was admitted Tuesday morning by City Manager C. A. Bingham. He said it was repaired within half an hour after the fire.

Fire Chief Mack told a Lima News reporter Tuesday morning that the box was in working order; that he tried it out after firemen had gone to Central building. He said he believed the boys who attempted to turn in the alarm did not know how to work the box.

Assistant Chief Clem Eyster told a Lima News reporter Tuesday morning that the circuit to the box at Central was out of order when the fire broke out. He said the alarm did not come in, but that there were a couple of "clicks" and they knew at Central department that someone was trying to turn in an alarm. He said a fuse was burned out, probably due to a "hot" wire.

The boys at Central high who attempted to turn in the alarm tried four times and then resorted to the telephone, one of them told a Lima News reporter.

The reports of various officials and the boys do not coincide.

BINGHAM WILL MAKE INVESTIGATION

Manager Bingham said Tuesday afternoon that when he came to Lima as city executive he issued orders that fire alarm boxes be inspected every 30 days and he had been under the impression that this was being done. He declared that if they were not being inspected that often, his orders were being violated and that he would make an investigation immediately into the matter.

Only in one respect was there a semblance of them being parallel—that concerning the long lapse between tests of individual boxes. Mack said it had been about 90 days since individual boxes were tested. Eyster said they were tested last spring and that they are tested semi-annually; that arrangements were being made yesterday for the semi-annual test.

Circuits are tested from Central station every day, Eyster said.

It was admitted that there is no special test for boxes in the vicinity of school buildings. These are tested along with the others when the department makes its rounds and pulls every box. This had not been done for 90 days, according to Mack; not since last spring, according to Eyster.

The fire at Central building was not serious Monday and students passed out of the smoke-filled structure orderly and in good time. Paper in a chute had become ignited by spontaneous combustion, according to Chief Mack.

SEWER JOB WILL BE CONTINUED AS PLANNED

Bonding Company Agrees to Carry Out Jones' Contract

DOUBLE BOND IS ASSURED

Negotiations With Contractors Are Under Way

Bondsmen of the Fred R. Jones Co., defaulters on the intercepting and outfall sewer contract, will complete the job, according to an agreement reached between the city commissioners and the officials of the Royal Indemnity Co. of New York city, bondsmen for Jones.

Just as soon as the bonding company can get figures from another contractor, the company having received figures from three contractors already, they will award the contract for completion of the job, according to the agreement. R. T. McSchultz, of Akron, the McLaughlin Co. of Lima and H. J. Adams & Co. of Cleveland have already submitted figures or will do so within a day or two, the bonding company officials announced.

PAY ALL DEBTS
All debts contracted by the Jones company are to be paid by the bonding company before sewer work is resumed. Material men have claims of $16,000.

All property damages which have occurred by reason of the work thus far done on the sewer on Eprek-st, as windows broken during blasting for the sewer trench, are to be paid by the bonding company.

The city is to continue to retain 10 percent of each monthly estimate paid the contractor so that at the end of the job the city will be holding $34,000 of money due the contractors for the job. The city now holds approximately $17,000 due the Jones company.

Bonds in the sum of $170,000 which the Royal Indemnity Co. put up to protect the city on the Jones contract are continued in full force and effect and it is agreed that the new contractor shall be bonded to the city for the proper completion of the job.

DOUBLE BOND
Thus the city will have a double bond on the entire job and has, according to city officials, nothing to worry about. This bonding agreement is conditioned on its being satisfactory to the city solicitor, city manager and B. F. Darling, resident engineer in charge of all city sewer work.

Conferences for the adjustment of the Jones sewer contract muddle started Monday when H. E. Pendleton and W. A. Foley from the home office of the bonding company went into conference with some of city officials.

At the conference at which the agreement was reached all city commissioners, the city manager, city solicitor and Sewer Engineer Darling represented the city while Pendleton and Foley appeared for the bonding company.

Tuesday morning Frank J. O'Neill of New York, vice president of Royal Indemnity Co., arrived in the city. No special significance is attached to his visit, H. E. Darling of the company said Tuesday.

Another contractor has also reached the city to make a study of the job before offering his bid, this company being the McEwen Construction Co., of Baltimore, Md.

Pendleton said Tuesday that just as soon as the contractors study the situation and submit their figures, his company will award the job of finishing the sewer.

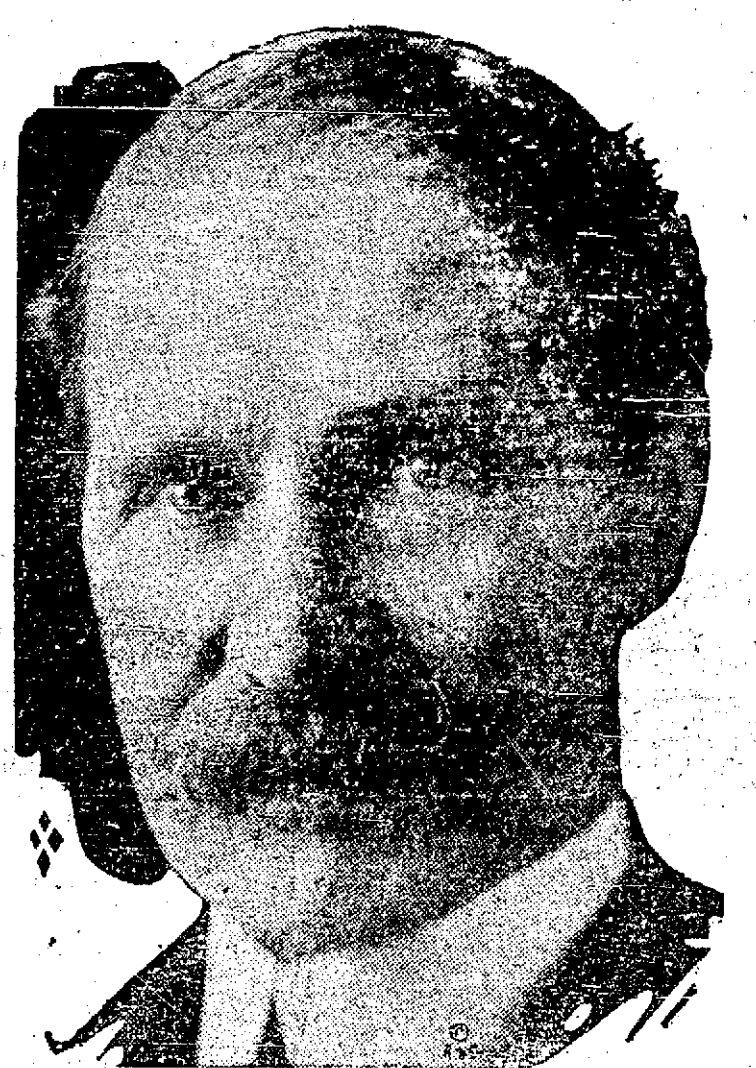

UNDERTAKES FORMATION OF TURKISH CABINET

CONSTANTINOPLE — Ismet Pasha has accepted the offer of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, president of the newly proclaimed Turkish republic, to form a new cabinet.

The national assembly at Ankara voted yesterday to establish a republic. Mustafa Kemal Pasha was unanimously elected president with power to nominate a premier.

Ismet Pasha, the new premier, was an outstanding figure at the Lausanne conference.

VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

ANDREW BONAR LAW

ANDREW BONAR LAW DIES AT HIS HOME IN LONDON

Former British Prime Minister Succumbs to Long Illness

CRUSHED UNDER SORROW

Never Recovered from Shock of Sons' Deaths in War

LONDON — (Associated Press) — Andrew Bonar Law, for seven months prime minister of Great Britain, died in his modest London home at 3 o'clock this morning.

Five months ago, on May 20, he resigned the premiership because of a throat ailment which for a long time had troubled him. Even then he was reluctant to admit that his career was finished and retained his seat in the house of commons where he since has made two or three appearances.

Ten days ago Bonar Law returned to London from Brighton after a sojourn of several weeks. His physicians issued a statement to the effect that he had contracted a severe chill but the public did not suspect that the end was so near until they read in this morning's newspapers that he had developed septic pneumonia and a condition that gave rise to considerable anxiety, but soon after extra appeared giving the news of his death.

The ex-premier's daughter, his only near relative left in England, was with him during the last days of his illness. His two sons were killed in the world war, a sorrow from which Bonar Law never recovered.

SPRINKLING PREVENTED
When the Canadian Scotsman, Bonar Law was born in New Brunswick, Canada, on September 16, 1858—accepted his high office a year ago his friends well knew that his health was precarious. Outside that close circle it was known only that he had contracted throat complaint which prevented him from speaking.

Bonar Law was aware of his own condition and promised the Unionist party, when he accepted its mandate, that he would resign if and when he found his strength un-dermined.

WHEREIN CUPID WORKS FAST

Married, divorced and married again, all in the same day, was the experience of Florence Jane Mitchell, 35, waitress, who obtained license in probate court to wed James Eshman, 29, baker, 227 N. Pierce-st, late Monday.

Earlier in the day as Mrs. Florence Bacome, she appeared in common pleas court and was granted a divorce from Arley Bacome, on grounds of gross neglect.

PRINCESS STONED

Hermine Wounded While Walking Near Ex-Kaiser's Chateau

DOORN, Holland — (Associated Press) — A stone thrown by an unknown hand inflicted a serious wound in the ear of Princess Hermine, while she was walking with her children last evening in a wood near the ex-kaiser's chateau. The police arrested several persons, but said they did not get the culprit.

Wilhelm's entourage and the entire village of Doorn have been greatly excited by the incident.

WAGES WAR AGAINST ILLEGAL OPERATIONS

DENVER—Judge Ben B. Lindsey asked the Denver city council last night for $146,000 with which to conduct his fight to prevent illegal operations, which he recently declared had cut the city's birth rate in half.

Judge Lindsey repeated his recommendations made in a communication to the Denver county grand jury urging that the investigating body recommend an appropriation for the maternity fund, for "the protection of unborn babies and for the mothers' compensation fund to care for destitute mothers. He also urged the establishment of a workhouse as provided by law, for husbands and fathers who fail to support their families.

PARKING LAW PASSED BY CITY COMMISSION

SLIDES ON WIRES TO FREEDOM

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—(Associated Press)—Sliding forty feet over slender electric wires on an improvised roller made of a broom handle, then leaping thirty feet from the wall to the ground, Arthur Kench, 29, of New York, escaped late yesterday from the Missouri penitentiary here. Kench's break was described by prison officials as one of the most spectacular in their experience.

FIGHTS FOR NAME OF DAUGHTER

Mother of Mrs. Stokes Takes Stand in Divorce Case

NEW YORK — (United Press)—A mother went on the witness stand here today to defend her daughter against charges that would stain her honor and good name.

Mrs. Emma Miller, mother of Helen Elwood Stokes, was the chief witness for the defense in the divorce suit of W. E. D. Stokes, who charges his wife was unfaithful.

Alert, careful, weighing every legal question lest it make a trap, the mother told the story of her daughter's life ever since she was a little girl, leaving home for the first time, to go to boarding school.

Her eyes flashing with anger, her expression denoting disdain, she denied insinuations that Mrs. Stokes—then Helen Elwood—ever had a clandestine rendezvous with Edgar T. Wallace, wealthy mining engineer at Butte, Mont.

"I never heard of Buncheon until this trial opened," she said.

NEVER UNCHAPERONED
"My daughter never went about unchaperoned."

Mrs. Miller, when she went on the stand looked fixedly at the group of lawyers representing Stokes, as they prepared to take notes on her testimony, to be used in cross-examination.

She testified she had lived in Denver for 30 years. Her daughter's two children are there now in her home, she said.

Mrs. Stokes is 35 years old, according to her mother's best recollection. She lived in Denver until 1905, when she was sent to the National Seminary in Washington. Later the family went for a trip to Europe.

In 1906 Mrs. Miller was in San Francisco with her daughter and two children by her second marriage. They stayed at the Palace hotel and there they were introduced by Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada to Wallace, co-respondent in the case. Wallace later was entertained twice at the Miller home in Denver but Mrs. Stokes did not go out alone with him, and when Mrs. Miller came to New York again with her children, they saw Wallace, but there was always a crowd present.

With regard to the $1,000 diamond ring which Wallace has admitted loaning to Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Miller said she was present when the ring was loaned. Wallace exhibited it and Mrs. Stokes exclaimed over its beauty, begging to be allowed to wear it for a while.

Mrs. Miller said she was not present when the ring was returned.

On account of a death in the family of a juror the trial was to be adjourned for several days at the conclusion of the morning session, so Mrs. Stokes herself will not have a chance to testify today.

LOS ANGELES — Maude Leone, former wife of Willard Mack, actor and playwright, is seriously ill at a hospital here. Physicians attending her say she is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Two Hour Regulation Made Effective for Congested District—Efforts to Exempt High and North-sts From Rule are Ineffective

City commissioners Monday night passed the automobile parking ordinance to limit two-hour parking. Action was taken over the protest of Commissioner Earl Rohn who tried to have High and North-sts eliminated from the provisions relative to parallel parking. He got no second to his motion to make this elimination and voted "no" on the passage of the ordinance. The ordinance becomes effective at the earliest possible time, allowed by law, which is 10 days.

Two-hour parking is provided for between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. week days, except Saturdays when it is extended to 9 p. m. on the following streets:

TWO HOUR LIMITS
Main-st, Pennsylvania railroad to the Ottawa river.

Around the curb lines of Public Square for a space of seven feet from the curb.

Market-st, from Central-av to West-st.

High-st, from Union-st to West-st.

Elizabeth-st, from Spring-st, to North-st.

Union-st from Spring-st to North-st.

These provisions do not apply on Sundays nor do they apply to the present system of parking in Public Square which remains unchanged, both as to hours and manner of parking.

Parallel parking is provided on all these streets, the inside wheels to be not over six inches from the curb, except on certain streets where 45 degree angle parking is provided.

Angle parking at 45 degrees is provided on the following streets:

Main-st, from North-st to Public Square.

Market-st from the B. & O. railroad to McDonell-st.

Commissioner Rohn's amendment, to which there was no second would have provided angle parking on High and North-sts from Central-av to West-st.

2 WOMEN KILLED
Hit by Auto While Attempting to Board Cleveland Cars

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — Two women attempting to board street cars, were struck down by passing automobiles and died in hospitals this morning, both with fractured skulls. In one case, police are seeking a driver who they claim sped on leaving his victim. In the second, officers absolved the motorist.

The fatalities carried the traffic toll since Sunday to five.

The women who died today were Mrs. Mable Harper, 61, run down when she stepped from behind a parked automobile and Mrs. Mary Waters, 40, fatally injured while trying to board a street car. The driver of the machine which struck her failed to stop, according to police.

PERSISTENCY

CAR LINES FACE RAIL BREAK

Agreement Has Not Been Reached in Temporary Bridge

Failure of the street car company and interurban lines using Bellefontaine-av bridge to reach an agreement with the Roberts Supply Co., contractors, may result in halting of transportation when the present bridge is torn out to make way for a new structure being built by the county.

"No plan has been agreed on for cars to cross the river during construction of the new bridge," Charles Roberts, contractor, declared Tuesday. "Officials declare that they did not know a bridge was to be put in. Company attorneys are considering the matter now."

Roberts said several plans have been proposed, the latest of which is to build a temporary structure south of the new bridge.

WOULD QUIT JAIL TO SEE BABE

Father Waiting Three Months for Trial Gets Big News

Longing of a father for a first glimpse of his child, may cause the red tape of federal court procedure to be cut in favor of Ross Lee, 34, Auglaize-co farmer, languishing in Lucas-co jail on a liquor charge. His case is to be brought to attention of Federal Judge Jones, with request that it be disposed of.

Lee was arrested three months ago, and taken to Toledo, after being arraigned before U. S. Commissioner C. W. Long. He was sent to jail to await trial. Thru absence of a report of the case he never obtained a hearing.

In the meantime his wife presented him with another baby and he is anxious to go home to see it. He states in a letter written recently to Judge Kilitt.

Assistant District Attorney George Reed promised Tuesday investigate the matter.

Lee in his letter expressed willingness to plead guilty, if he given credit for time spent in jail. Lee was arrested just south of the county line July 29, by deputies from both counties. Twenty-seven gallons of alleged whiskey were confiscated. No report was made as is usual in cases where prohibition officers make the arrest.

GIRL BANDIT CHIEF CAPTURED BY POLICE

PETTICOAT LEADS TO ARREST

Garment Reveals Sex of Gang Leader at Cleveland

DRESSED IN MEN'S CLOTHES

Admits She is Traveling Arsenal for Robbers

CLEVELAND—(Associated Press)—A twenty-three year old girl bandit, who, according to police, dressed in men's clothes and was aided by two men accomplices, held up and robbed two West Side soft drink cafes at the points of revolvers during the night, was under arrest today.

Her capture was the result of the wreck of the taxi in which the band of three were escaping from the scene of the second robbery.

The girl and her accomplices fled, but police arrived before the taxi driver could extricate himself from the wreckage. Following the questioning of the driver, detectives staged an early morning raid of an East Side hotel and arrested the girl and a man they claim to have been one of her companions in the robberies.

A petticoat, found half hidden back of the taxi seat, was the first clue that raised suspicions of the detectives that one of the robber band was a woman.

The petticoat was shown the taxi driver and he finally admitted that one of the robbers was a girl.

After her arrest, detectives say, the girl admitted being the traveling arsenal for the band and that she carried the revolvers for all in her banding.

BONAR LAW DIES IN LONDON

equal to his work. He gave place to Stanley Baldwin, his chancellor of the exchequer almost before his new government was fairly organized, retiring to the country to safeguard his falling strength.

No official statement as to the nature of Bonar Law's illness was ever made, but the public drew an inference from the fact that Dr. Thomas Harder, who was attending him when he resigned and who has since been his physician, is one of the foremost cancer specialists.

During the interval spent in the country since his retirement from the prime ministry, Bonar Law had been able to take outdoor walks and also motored considerably. The reports of these activities, which seemed to indicate that he was holding his own, had not prepared the public for the news of his comparatively rapid decline.

There has not yet been time for funeral arrangements but there is every reason to believe it was Mr. Bonar Law's wish to be buried simply as he lived.

BROKEN UNDER STRAIN

PARIS—(United Press)—Bonar Law died another martyr to the terrific responsibilities of office, in the opinion of his friends here.

The heavy strain of the decision to finally rupture the war entente probably contributed more than any other thing to bring about his breakdown.

The mental strain of taking a decision that might change the fate of Europe and the British empire left Bonar Law broken.

When Bonar Law left the conference room where he virtually ended the war-time entente of France and England, he was scarcely able to walk, his face was drawn and his lips and hands trembling.

He came immediately to the Room of the Eagles in the Hotel Carlton, where he slumped in a chair facing a hundred eager newspaper correspondents and in a voice barely audible told them that the entente was at last actually ended.

LLOYD GEORGE SHOCKED

PHILADELPHIA—(United Press)—The death of Bonar Law, news of which was taken to Lloyd George this morning, shortly after his special train arrived here at 7 a. m. deeply affected the former premier.

"I am terribly sorry to hear that," said Lloyd George. He was too much affected for further speech at the time.

Lloyd George's brief visit will be devoted to visits to historic spots including Independence Hall and to the last formal speech but one of his American tour.

He goes from Philadelphia late this afternoon to Scranton, Pa., where there are many Welsh miners and late tomorrow will leave for New York.

CANAL REPAIRS DISCLOSE TOOLS 2,200 YEARS OLD

ROME—A complete set of workman's tools were excavated recently during some repairs to the canal used to carry off the water of the river Velino. The tools are said to date back to the construction of the canal by Manius Curius Dentatus in 272 B. C.

The Velino is so impregnated with lime that the bed of the river is constantly rising and it was necessary to construct the canal to carry off the water. The canal is in use to this day. Its construction incidentally resulted in the making of the finest and most beautiful waterfalls in Italy, those of the Anio at Tivoli, and the cascades called "Del Marmore." Here the Velino precipitates itself in three leaps a height of nearly 600 feet.

DUELS, WAR AND AFTER, IN RECENT BRITISH NOVELS

DEAN REVIEWS

SIR JOHN DERING, by Jeffery Farnol (Little, Brown).

THE WOMAN OF KNOCKALOE, by Sir Hall Caine (Dodd, Mead).

THE HOPEFUL JOURNEY, by Beatrice Kean Seymour (Seltzer).

THE OTHER STORY, by Henry Kittell Webster (Hobbs, Merrill).

LOOSE LEAVES, by Katherine Dayton (Doubleday, Page).

By JAMES W. DEAN

NEW YORK—(Special)—Of the new books that come to hand this week the outstanding ones seem to be those by English authors. They are "Sir John Dering," by Jeffery Farnol; "The Woman of Knockaloe," by Sir Hall Caine, and "The Hopeful Journey," by Beatrice Kean Seymour.

In many ways "Sir John Dering" is similar to Sabatini's "Fortune's Fool". In many ways it is dissimilar.

Sir John is a duellist. His rapier flashes in almost every chapter of the tale, but little blood is spilled. In that Farnol is unlike Sabatini, Farnol draws the blade, but withholds it. Sabatini is out with it, and into action on the least provocation.

This Sir John is a man of bad reputation because of his escapades with swords and women. But at heart he is a "man of sentiment" and most of the plot deals with his efforts to redeem himself in the eyes of a haughty maid who has sworn vengeance on him for the death of her lover.

Redemption in the eyes of the fair one comes when he has driven from the countryside all the knaves and tyrants and restored to contentment all those who have been oppressed.

Action of "Sir John Dering" takes place in the Sussex district, scene of Farnol's first success, "The Broad Highway." The author has been unfortunate in his attempt to include too many dialects. They make phonetic puzzles of many passages.

One thing Farnol has done in masterful style is his introduction to "Sir John Dering." "The light of guttering candles fell upon the two small swords where they lay, the one glittering brightly, the other its murderous tooth horribly bent and dimmed." There is in that a challenge to read on which can not be denied.

As a simple narrative, "The Woman of Knockaloe" is passing well, but Sir Hall Caine does not intend it as simple narrative. He is speaking in parables.

A minister, his son and daughter live on the Knockaloe farm on the Isle of Man. The war comes. The son enlists. The girl hates the Germans. Later, the farm is converted into an internment camp. The girl is the only woman among 25,000 prisoners and 2,000 guards. Thus she becomes known as "The Woman of Knockaloe."

Her brother at the front is killed. Her father loses his faith and becomes embittered. A contrary change overtakes the girl. She doesn't hate Germans so much as she hates those who make wars. Then she falls in love with one of the prisoners Oskar.

With the coming of peace, prisoners are to be returned. Oskar must leave her. He tries to obtain work in England, but because of his nationality is barred. The girl loses the farm. Oskar proposes that the girl return to Germany with him. His mother writes that she would rather see him dead than married to one of the enemy.

Either of them can live alone, but it seems that all of earth is closed to them together. Race hatred persists after peace has stilled the guns of war.

Then the thought of Christ comes to the lovers. By sacrificing themselves they may point the way to everlasting peace on earth. They climb a cliff, strap themselves together and, with their first and last kiss on their lips, plunge into the ocean.

Only Hall Caine could sublimate and glorify suicide.

Reactions that followed the World War also play a part in "The Hopeful Journey." Yet reactions that followed the Crimean War are also included in this narrative, for it starts in 1826 and is concerned chiefly with the interests of Jeremy Bentley and his family. As Beatrice Seymour tells her story she marks the years so that the reader fully realizes the passage of time. There is nothing startling in the plot of the story. It is illuminating because it serves as the frame upon upon which an English woman works a design of behavior through several English generations.

Two recent volumes of short and unrelated tales are "The Other Story," by Henry Kittell Webster, and "Loose Leaves," by Katherine Dayton. Neither has any great merit.

The child's virtue of Webster's stories is that he gives them homely little touches that make them seem real. But truth is not always stranger than fiction, and, very often, not nearly as interesting.

It seems to me that Miss Dayton has gone to considerable effort to appear funny in her stories in "Loose Leaves." There is humor in them, but it seems to have been born in great travail. Humor is ineffective unless it seems spontaneous.

Latest score of best sellers compiled by The Bookman shows the ten leading works of fiction are "Black Oxen," "The Mine With the Iron Door," "The White Flag," "His Children's Children," "One of Ours," "The Dim Lantern," "The Enchanted April," "The Covered Wagon," "The Alaskan" and "Faint Perfume."

The ten non-fiction leaders are "Life of Christ," "Life and Letters of Walter H. Page," "Eliezer," "The Mind in the Making," "A Man From Maine," "The Americanization of Edward Bok," "Damaged Souls," "The Outline of History," "Up Stream" and "The Story of Mankind."

WEDDING JIMMED BY EARTHQUAKE

Japanese Crown Prince's Plans Busted by Disaster

BECOME'S NATION'S HERO

Future Emperor Saves Money for Relief Work

By CLARENCE DUBOSE

TOKYO—(United Press)—The earthquake was pretty rough to Hirohito, crown prince regent and future emperor of Japan.

But it made him, if possible, even more popular with the people than ever before—and he had already been held in more affection by his subjects than any of his predecessors ever was not even excepting Meiji the Great, whose reign saw the beginning, and much of the making, of modern Japan.

The J-shin, which is one way of describing an earthquake without using profanity, busted up the crown prince's wedding and his pet palace, where he had planned to live with his bride, the Princess Nagako Kuni, and it caused some of the imperial family remove to Kyoto, the ancient capital, in South Japan.

"Nothing doing," said Hirohito. Of course he didn't say it in those words. But his veto was flat. It was straight, direct and to the point.

"We're going to rebuild Tokyo, as I set the big idea," said he—or approximately that, freely translated. "We're planning a bigger, more beautiful Tokyo. And several million people are going to live here. They're not going to run away from Tokyo. And I'm not—not by a jugful."

STOPPED MOVING TALK

So that was that. And when the story leaked out—and you could hardly expect such a story to stay bottled up very long—it squelched pretty effectively the talk of removing the Japanese capital from Tokyo to Kyoto, or anywhere else.

"Well, then," said somebody, "perhaps it will be just as well to go ahead with the imperial wedding—the prince regent and the Princess Nagako were to have been married in November. 'It wouldn't be right to allow an earthquake, even a hell-twister of an earthquake, to interrupt an occasion like this.'"

"This J-shin has jimmied the happiness of an awful lot of people," observed the regent, "and to me it doesn't seem fair that my happiness should be sought when so many are sad—or that the state should spend so much money on a wedding when all the money we can raise is needed for relief and reconstruction. There will be no wedding this fall!"

So, again, that was that. "Oh, very well," came back the counselors. "At least—surely at the very least—we may be allowed to order immediate commencement of the work of rebuilding the Kasumagasaki palace!"

The Kasumagasaki palace is a beautiful place, or—to be more exact—it was a beautiful place. When the J-shin cut thru toyling with the palace it wasn't much of anything—except a new. The honeymoon of the prince regent and the Princess Nagako would have been spent in this place, and, in fact, it was to have been their permanent official residence, until such time as they might move over to the imperial palace itself, where the emperor lives.

The Kasumagasaki palace was built for the present emperor when he was crown prince. It would have adorned Versailles, even. It was beautiful—and it was very, very costly.

"No," said Hirohito. "We won't immediately commence the work of rebuilding the Kasumagasaki palace. As a matter of fact, we won't commence it any time soon. Indeed, as I think it over, I have a hunch that it is going to be a long, long time before we rebuild that palace—because, first, we're going to feed the people and build temporary homes for them, and then rebuild the city permanently. And after that is done, if there is any spare change left, you might drop around some afternoon and let me have the lowest quotations on palaces."

BUILDING LOAN CO. PLANS TO MOVE OFFICES

Officials of the Central Building & Loan Co., with offices in the city building, have completed plans for moving about the first of the year to the Keystone block on High-st just across the alley from the Shawnee Finance Co. offices.

The front of the ground floor of the Keystone building is being remodelled and a vault is being installed in the rooms. When completed the remodelled offices will give the company one of the most modern building and loan offices in the city, officials said Tuesday.

SEGREGATION IS URGED AS MEANS TO CHECK CRIME

CHICAGO—The only way to solve the problem of increased criminality, caused by a rapid rise in the number of mental defectives in this country, lies in the segregation of the defective delinquents in state controlled colonies where the protective environment which they need can be created, Judge Harry Olson of the Chicago municipal court declared in an address prepared for delivery to delegates to the birth control conference of the middle western states meeting here today.

"Under such control there is an abrupt end to criminal depradations and to reproduction," Judge Olson said. "Both great needs of society are met. The need of the individual defective is likewise met for he is given an opportunity to live to the limit of his powers."

EX-GRID STAR IS RAILWAY KING

Canada's Great Carrier System Run by American

WINNIPEG—(United Press)

A man who dwarfs Jack Dempsey for size, and whose tremendous brawn is controlled by a brain that can out-think any two politicians in the broad Dominion of Canada; a man who fits into the big open spaces of the North Country and into the dignities and suavities of a social order most rigorous; finally, a man imbued with a great kindness and liking for his fellow men—that is Sir Henry Thornton, the American who runs Canada's national railway system.

Of course, he is a Britisher now, and has a title and all that, but that is just by the accident of circumstances. The English have a habit of putting titles and colored ribbons their achieving men. So plain Henry Thornton, formerly of the University of Pennsylvania football squad, became Sir Henry because he could do things with railroads.

Right now he is wrestling with one of the biggest railroad problems in the world. It is the problem of making a railroad system of 23,000 miles, with a book value of $1,900,000,000, running thru a tremendously rich, but also a new and sparsely settled country, complete successfully with another system, privately owned, with 16,000 miles of lines, most of which parallel the Canadian lines.

Well, he won't do it this year; the Canadian government will have to meet a debt of some $40,000,000 due entirely, however, to the tremendous fixed charges on such enormous investment of capital.

REAL EMPIRE BUILDER

The term "empire builder" was invented to express such men as Thornton. He is building for the future—for the day when Canada, the young giant of the north, will be a land of hundreds of millions of people instead of nine to ten millions.

As now, Lord George, no mean prophet, foresees a population of 300,000,000 for Canada eventually—long ere that, Sir Henry's work of today will have justified itself.

He was a notable football player and athletic coach at University of Pennsylvania and Vanderbilt. He started railroading with the Pennsylvania, and eventually was in charge of the Long Island railroad. He was there when the Great Eastern, the British system that runs more trains in a given time than any transportation system on the globe, grabbed him. The House of Commons threw a fit when this husky Yankee was imported to help run a British railroad.

"You folks are noted for your sporting fairness," Thornton said, amid the hubbub. "Give me a sporting chance; that's every last thing I ask."

GAVE HIM A CHANCE

They did. He made good. The British took him to themselves, as witness his title and his tremendous popularity. Then Canada got him—got him by agreeing to put him in sole charge of the Canadian national, a project then in embryo. MacKenzie King, Canadian premier, had to stand up in Commons at Ottawa and pledge his honor that politics and politicians would keep hands off the Canadian national, before Sir Henry would make a bargain to tackle the problem. He took hold last December. Early this spring, the Canadian national system as it now is, took form. Before that it was much less extensive.

What happened when Thornton grabbed the throttle? Morale began to rise. "We're going somewhere," Canadian men will tell you today. "I'll say we are."

TED IS ALL SET FOR COLD SPELL

Ted was out early Tuesday gathering coal along the railroad tracks.

He kept a good look-out for detectives as he is not at all anxious to take a trip to Judge Poling's court. The reason for his activity is to be found in the weather report which predicts freezing temperatures Tuesday night. It will be generally fair and the cold weather will continue thru Wednesday. Ted says, "Let it come."

BRITAIN ACCEPTS PARIS TERMS

U. S. DELEGATE IS ON WAY

Hughes' Proposal Under Fire of "Irreconcilables"

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—The plan of Secretary of State Hughes for an economic commission of experts to study Germany's capacity to pay has been accepted by all the powers concerned, it was declared on behalf of the president at the White House today.

LONDON—(Associated Press)—Great Britain has accepted the terms specified by Premier Poincare of France for a conference of experts to consider the reparation question.

The American government will be acquainted with the willingness of all the countries concerned in the reparation problem to participate in the conference and will be asked immediately to designate its members of the committee of experts.

NEW YORK—Willis H. Booth, president of the International Chamber of Commerce and vice president of the Guaranty Co. called today on the Mauretania for Paris to arrange for a conference of delegates from 38 nations to make recommendations regarding the proposed reparations discussion advocated by Secretary of State Hughes.

Booth was hesitant in discussing the Paris session which begins Nov. 12, but it was reported his hurried trip concern selection of the committee of financial experts, who, under the Hughes plan, would pass on the amount that Germany might be expected to pay.

"I think it will be a very important session," was all Booth would say of the Paris conference.

HUGHES PLAN FOUGHT

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Further attacks by the "irreconcilables" are to be made against the program of Secretary Hughes for an expert conference to bring about a settlement of the reparations question, it was learned here today.

The statement of Senator McMillin, chairman of the Republican senate campaign committee, was regarded as the first gun in a campaign of opposition on the Hughes plan.

"Any body of conferees," McCormick warned, "it is to command the confidence of the American people, must include a majority who were against the League of Nations and foreign political engagements, a majority of whom the people will trust."

The attack of the "irreconcilables" against the Hughes program may be made on the argument that under the reservation to the treaty of peace between the United States and Germany requiring the consent of congress to the appointment of American representatives on the reparations commission and such bodies, this country cannot take part in the expert conference.

However, Secretary Hughes is understood to take the attitude that this reservation does not prohibit the government from appointment of members of an advisory body such as the proposed commission of experts will do.

SWEDISH TENANTS FORM ORGANIZATION TO FIGHT SCARCITY OF DWELLINGS

STOCKHOLM—(Associated Press)—A growing scarcity of unfurnished apartments, accompanied by increasing rents, has induced the flat-dwellers of Sweden to form a national organization, a congress of tenants' societies from all parts of the country having been held at Gothenburg for this purpose.

The protection guaranteed tenants thru this national body will be supplementary to the assistance already afforded by the municipal rent committees and apartment renting agencies.

At the beginning of the new rent year, it is estimated that about 1,000 families in Stockholm and 200 in Gothenburg will be without homes, having been forced to vacate their apartments because of termination of their leases.

Temporary domiciles are being arranged by the municipal authorities, while new apartment houses of American pattern are nearing completion.

In many cases office floors are being remodeled for housekeeping, and it is even being proposed to relieve the situation by renting out cabins of ships in the harbor of Stockholm.

TEACHES 25 SUCCESSIVE YEARS IN SAME ONE-ROOM RURAL SCHOOL

August Heckman Is Also Civic Leader in New Cleveland

PUPILS WIN MANY PRIZES

Buy Tools With Cash Awards From Exhibits At Fairs

NEW CLEVELAND—August Heckman, teacher in the Brickner one-room rural school here, is nominated by his friends in the community for a position at the top of Putnam-co's list of public welfare workers.

Heckman, for 24 years a teacher in the schools of the New Cleveland community, is believed to hold the record for continuous service among Putnam-co teachers. He is now in his 25th year of service.

Always a booster of the county fair, and in fact of any event in the nature of civic uplift, Heckman as usual got behind the work of his pupils for their exhibit at the county fair this fall; the 25th successive year his pupils had entered their work in this exhibit.

Besides his work as a teacher he served six years as county school examiner and is a leader in junior club work. "I believe in the old truth that we learn not for the school but for life," says Heckman.

PRACTICAL STUDIES

"I therefore have not resisted my labors to teaching simply the branches prescribed for the different grades, but also have trained my pupils in practical work."

Attending to the manner in which he has carried out this idea, his boys long have been given regular work in what now is known as manual training, and the girls thru their food club have acquired a practical knowledge of cooking and canning.

The success of these ventures is seen in the number of prizes won annually by the school's entries in the county fair exhibits. For 25 years county fair judges have been awarding Heckman's pupils generous shares of the annual prizes.

The school's prizes during this period include 900 books and an annual cash award of $50 or more, the cash prizes for one year reaching $140. Much of the school's utensils used in actual school work also have been procured in this manner. The money received as prizes is used in carrying on school work, enabling the purchase among other things of a milk tester, work bench, tools, and an oil stove.

Nor is the recreation side of school life forgotten as balls, bats and other athletic equipment have also been purchased in this manner.

AWARDS RECEIVED

The recent fair resulted in the New Cleveland boys and girls clubs receiving $78.50 and trips with expenses paid for two of the entrants to the state boys' and girls' club week sessions at Columbus.

The food club received third prize at the state fair last year. The school was accredited with having the best rural school exhibit at the state fair three years in succession.

As an example of Heckman's interest in looking after the personal welfare of his pupils, friends point to the establishment of hot lunches during winter months, a feature which Heckman declares has done much to promote the health of the pupils.

This practice, which only recently has been instituted in schools generally, has been an institution in Heckman's school for the last seven years.

Acting on his own initiative, Heckman has established a farmers' night school which is now in its seventh year and which consists of weekly meetings for study and discussion of subjects of interest to the modern farmer. Six times these winter courses were brought to a successful conclusion with farm institutes that commanded the enthusiasm and interest of farmers thruout the section.

Looking back over a career of 25 years in the teaching profession Heckman finds no small measure of satisfaction and recompense for his efforts in the lasting friendships he has made and the constant expressions of gratitude that come to him from former pupils.

ALLEY IS CLOSED BY ORDINANCE

Action Gives Railroad a Spur, Doesn't Isolate Lots

Ordinances vacating alleys, transferring funds and giving the city manager power to make certain contracts were passed by the city commissioners at their meeting Monday night.

Under the terms of an ordinance duly passed, a 16-foot alley leading to S. Atlantic-av closed so the Erie railroad can run a switch into their coal yard. But in return for this the coal men must give the city a deed to a 12 foot strip of land which will provide a passageway from lots on the closed alley to Atlantic-av and they must maintain this alley besides putting in the cross-walks.

Orders for the transfer of $1,500 from the depository interest fund to the public safety fund in order that the salaries of firemen, policemen, now due, can be paid, are contained in an ordinance passed Monday night. The purpose of the transfer is to save the city the expense of borrowing money to pay the salaries and paying interest on that borrowed sum.

Under another ordinance City Manager Dingham is empowered to make a contract with the Erie railroad for the city to have an easement in the company's right of way on S. Main-st and on S. Metcalf-st so the city can build sewers under the railroad tracks at these two points. The city gets the right of way free. Another ordinance declares it necessary to improve Carlisle-av from Fairview-av to Second-st by sewerage. The work is to be done entirely at the expense of the property owners.

AMERICA DISCOVERED LONG BEFORE COLUMBUS, DR. HARRINGTON THINKS

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. — (Associated Press) — As a result of further excavations where the skulls of pre-historic men were found by Smithsonian Institution investigators last Thursday, scientists are more firmly convinced that one of the most important scientific discoveries of recent years has been made.

Minute inspection of the skulls, and of the formation in which they were imbedded, continues to point to the great remoteness of the era in which the Santa Barbara, Man lived, declares Dr. J. P. Harrington, who uncovered the skeletons, refuting his original assertion that the discovery would bring about a complete revision of anthropological theories concerning the North American continent. The skulls, with the beaming brows and receding foreheads, he declared, definitely establish, in his opinion, the fact that North America has discovered thousands of years before Columbus' historic arrival by primitive ape-like men just in the transitory period from anthropoid to man, who crossed from Asia by way of Behring Strait, found an uninhabited land and laid the foundation of aboriginal civilization.

ANOTHER PLANT SITE IS PURCHASED BY FORD

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys should have attention first because their work is most important.

If you feel that your kidneys are the cause of your sickness or run down condition, commence taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, because as soon as your kidneys begin to improve they will help all the other organs to health.

A Trial Will Convince Anyone

Thousands and thousands of people

SPECIAL NOTE—You may obtain a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. This gives you the opportunity to prove the remarkable merit of this medicine. They will also send you a book of valuable information, containing many of the thousands of grateful letters received from men and women who say they found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed in kidney, liver and bladder troubles. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample size bottle. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure and mention this paper.

everywhere have testified that the mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized, and that it stands the highest for its remarkable results in distressing cases.

Symptoms of Kidney Trouble

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequently passing water night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brick-dust or sediment in passing, backache, lame back, heart disturbance due to bad kidney trouble, uric acid rheumatism, lumbago, loss of flesh or yellow complexion, kidney trouble in its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Bus Lines Proven Irresponsible

Operating bus lines, commonly called "Shoestring" transportation companies, were dealt a hard blow a short time ago by the Supreme Court of Illinois.

The court stated that if such "Shoestring" companies, with no money invested in right-of-way and no reserve capital to provide adequate service or to protect the public from damage, were permitted to operate, disastrous results would be inevitable.

Des Moines, Iowa, Battle Creek and Muskegon, Michigan, tried to substitute motor busses for street cars but without avail—on rainy days women and old men stood on the street corners waiting for transportation that didn't come. Anybody that wanted a ride had to be able and willing to scramble for it, and as a result accidents multiplied so rapidly that the public soon insisted upon the return of the street cars.

When busses are operated in competition with the street railway company, the car and bus riders pay for the duplicate service in the form of fares, taxes, street assessments, accidents, or traffic jams.

It was decided June 19th, 1923 by the Supreme Court of Ohio, in the case of the Village of Perrysburg against Ridgway that, the power to establish, open, improve, maintain and repair public streets within the municipality, and fully control the care of them, is included within the term "Powers of Local Self Government."

GIRL BANDIT CHIEF CAPTURED BY POLICE

PETTICOAT LEADS TO ARREST

Garment Reveals Sex of Gang Leader at Cleveland

DRESSED IN MEN'S CLOTHES

Admits She is Traveling Arsenal for Robbers

CLEVELAND—(Associated Press)—A twenty-three year old girl bandit, who, according to police, dressed in men's clothes and was aided by two men accomplices, held up and robbed two West Side soft drink cafes at the points of revolvers during the night, was under arrest today.

Her capture was the result of the wreck of the taxicab in which the band of three were escaping from the scene of the second robbery.

The girl and her accomplices fled, but police arrived before the taxi driver could extricate himself from the wreckage. Following the questioning of the driver, detectives staged an early morning raid of an East Side hotel and arrested the girl and a man they claim to have been one of her companions in the robberies.

A petticoat, found half hidden back of the taxi seat, was the first clue that raised suspicion of the detectives that one of the robber band was a woman.

The petticoat was shown the taxi driver and he finally admitted that one of the robbers was a girl.

After her arrest, detectives say, the girl admitted being the traveling arsenal for the band and that she carried the revolvers for all in her handbag.

BONAR LAW DIES IN LONDON

equal to his work. He gave place to Stanley Baldwin, his chancellor of the exchequer almost before his new government was fairly organized, retiring to the country to safeguard his falling strength.

No official statement as to the nature of Bonar Law's illness was ever made, but the public drew an inference from the fact that Dr. Thomas Horder, who was attending him when he resigned and who has since been his physician, is one of the foremost cancer specialists.

During the interval spent in the country since his retirement from the prime ministry, Bonar Law had been able to take outdoor walks and also motored considerably. The reports of these activities, which seemed to indicate that he was holding his own, had not prepared the public for the news of his comparatively rapid decline.

There has not yet been time for funeral arrangements but there is every reason to believe it was Mr. Bonar Law's wish to be buried simply as he lived.

BROKEN UNDER STRAIN
PARIS—(United Press)—Bonar Law died another martyr to the terrific responsibilities of office, in the opinion of his friends here.

The heavy strain of the decision to finally rupture the war entente probably contributed more than any other thing to bring about his breakdown.

The mental strain of taking a decision that might change the fate of Europe and the British empire left Bonar Law a broken man.

When Bonar Law left the conference room where he virtually ended the war-time entente of France and England, he was scarcely able to walk, his face was drawn and his lips and hands trembling.

He came immediately to the Room of the Eagles in the Hotel Carlton, where he slumped in a chair being a hundred eager newspaper correspondents and in a voice barely audible told them that the entente was at last virtually ended.

LYON GEORGE SHOCKED

PHILADELPHIA—(United Press)—The death of Bonar Law, news of which was taken to Lyon George this morning, shortly after his special train arrived here at 7 a. m. deeply affected the former premier.

"I am terribly sorry to hear that," said Lyon George. "He was too much affected for further speech at the time."

Lyon George's brief visit will be devoted to visits to historic spots including Independence Hall and to the last formal speech but one of his American tour.

He goes from Philadelphia this afternoon to Scranton, Pa., where there are many Welsh miners and late tomorrow will leave for New York.

CANAL REPAIRS DISCLOSE TOOLS 2,200 YEARS OLD

ROME—A complete set of workman's tools were excavated recently during some repairs to the canal used to carry off the water of the river Velino. The tools are said to date back to the construction of the canal by Manius Curius Dentatus in 372 B. C.

The Velino is so impregnated with lime that the bed of the river is constantly rising and it was necessary to construct the canal to carry off the water. The canal is in use to this day. Its construction incidentally resulted in the making of the finest and most beautiful waterfalls in Italy, those of the Anio at Tivoli, and the cascades called "Del Marmore." Here the Velino precipitates itself in three leaps from a height of nearly 600 feet.

DUELS, WAR AND AFTER, IN RECENT BRITISH NOVELS

DEAN REVIEWS
SIR JOHN DERING, by Jeffery Farnol (Little, Brown).
THE WOMAN OF KNOCKALOE, by Sir Hall Caine (Dodd, Mead).
THE HOPEFUL JOURNEY, by Beatrice Kean Seymour (Seltzer).
THE OTHER STORY, by Henry Kitchell Webster (Bobbs, Merrill).
LOOSE LEAVES, by Katherine Dayton (Doubleday, Page).

By JAMES W. DEAN
NEW YORK—(Special)—Of the new books that come to hand this week the outstanding ones seem to be those by English authors. They are "Sir John Dering," by Jeffery Farnol; "The Woman of Knockaloe," by Sir Hall Caine, and "The Hopeful Journey," by Beatrice Kean Seymour.

In many ways "Sir John Dering" is similar to Sabatini's "Fortune's Foot." In many ways it is dissimilar.

Sir John is a duellist. His rapier flashes in almost every chapter of the tale, but little blood is spilled. In that Farnol is unlike Sabatini. Farnol draws the blade, but withholds it. Sabatini is out with it, and into action on the least provocation.

This Sir John is a man of bad reputation because of his escapades with swords and women. But at heart he is a 'man of sentiment' and most of the plot deals with his efforts to redeem himself in the eyes of a haughty maid who has sworn vengeance on him for the death of her lover.

Redemption in the eyes of the fair one comes when he has driven from the countryside all the knaves and tyrants and restored to contentment all those who have been oppressed.

Action of "Sir John Dering" takes place in the Sussex district, scene of Farnol's first success, "The Broad Highway." The author has been unfortunate in his attempt to include too many dialects. They make phonetic puzzles of many passages.

One thing Farnol has done in masterful style is his introduction to "Sir John Dering." "The light of guttering candles fell upon the two small swords where they lay, the one glittering brightly, the other its murderous steel horribly bent and dimmed." There is in that a challenge to read on which can not be denied.

As a simple narrative, "The Woman of Knockaloe" is passing fair, but Sir Hall Caine does not intend it as simple narrative. He is speaking in parables.

A minister, his son and daughter live on the Knockaloe farm on the Isle of Man. The war comes. The son enlists. The girl hates the Germans. Later, the farm is converted into an internment camp. The girl is the only woman among 25,000 prisoners and 2,000 guards. Thus she becomes known as "The Woman of Knockaloe."

Her brother at the front is killed. Her father loses his faith and becomes embittered. A contrary change overtakes the girl. She doesn't hate Germans so much as she hates those who make wars. Then she falls in love with one of the prisoners, Oskar.

With the coming of peace, prisoners are to be returned. Oskar must leave her. He tries to obtain work in England, but because of his nationality is barred. The girl loses the farm. Oskar proposes that the girl return to Germany with him. His mother writes that she would rather see him dead than married to one of the enemy.

Either of them can live alone, but it seems that all of earth is closed to them together. Race hatred persists after peace has silenced the guns of war.

Then the thought of Christ comes to the lovers. By sacrificing themselves they may point the way to everlasting peace on earth. They climb a cliff, strap themselves together and, with their first and last kiss on their lips, plunge into the ocean.

Only Hall Caine could sublimate and glorify suicide.

Reactions that followed the World War also play a part in "The Hopeful Journey." Yet reactions that followed the Crimean War are also included in this narrative, for it starts in 1826 and is concerned chiefly with the interests of Jeremy Bentley and his family. As Beatrice Seymour tells her story she marks the years so that the reader fully realizes the passage of time. There is nothing startling in the plot of the story. It is illuminating because it serves as the frame upon which an English woman works a design of behavior thru several English generations.

Two recent volumes of short and unrelated tales are "The Other Story," by Henry Kitchell Webster, and "Loose Leaves," by Katherine Dayton. Neither has any great merit.

stranger than fiction, and, very often, not nearly as interesting. It seems to me that Miss Dayton has gone to considerable effort to appear 'funny' in her stories in "Loose Leaves." There is humor in them, but it seems to have been born in great travail. Humor is ineffective unless it seems spontaneous.

WEDDING JIMMED BY EARTHQUAKE

Japanese Crown Prince's Plans Busted by Disaster

BECOME'S NATION'S HERO

Future Emperor Saves Money for Relief Work

By CLARENCE DUBOSE
TOKYO—(United Press)—The earthquake was pretty rough to Hirohito, crown prince regent and future emperor of Japan.

But it made him, if possible, even more popular with the people than ever before—and he had already been held in more affection by his subjects than any of his predecessors ever was—not even excepting Meiji the Great, whose reign saw the beginning, and much of the making, of modern Japan.

The jishin, which is one way of describing an earthquake without using profanity, busted up the crown prince's wedding and his pet plan, where he had planned to live with his bride, the Princess Nagako Kuni, and it caused some of the imperial family to move to Kyoto, the ancient capital, in South Japan.

"Nothing doing," said Hirohito. Of course he didn't say it in those words. But his veto was flat. It was straight, direct and to the point. "We're going to rebuild Tokyo, as I get the idea," said he—or approximately that, freely translated. "We're planning a bigger, more beautiful Tokyo. And several million people are going to live here. They're not going to run away from Tokyo. And I'm not—not by a jugful!"

STOPPED MOVING TALK
So that was that. And when the story leaked out—and you could hardly expect such a story to stay bottled up very long—it squeaked pretty effectively the talk of removing the Japanese capital from Tokyo to Kyoto, or anywhere else.

"Well, then," said somebody, "perhaps it will be just as well to go ahead with the imperial wedding—the prince regent and the Princess Nagako were to have been married in November. 'It wouldn't be right to allow an earthquake, even a hell of a lot of an earthquake, to shatter the wedding.'"

"This jishin has jimmied the happiness of an awful lot of people," observed the regent, "and to me it doesn't seem fair that my happiness should be sought when so many are sad—or that the state should spend so much money on a wedding when all the money we can raise is needed for relief and reconstruction. There will be no wedding this fall!"

So, again, that was that. "Oh, very well," came back the counselors. "At least—surely at the very least—we may be allowed to order immediate commencement of the work of rebuilding the Kasumagasaki palace?"

The Kasumagasaki palace is a beautiful place, or to be more exact—it was a beautiful place. When the jishin got thru torying with the palace it wasn't much of anything—except a mess. The honeymoon of the prince regent and the Princess Nagako would have been spent in this place, and, in fact, it was to have been their permanent official residence, until such time as they might move over to the imperial palace itself, where the emperor lives.

The Kasumagasaki palace was built for the present emperor when he was crown prince. It would have adorned Versailles, even. It was beautiful—and it was very, very costly.

"No," said Hirohito. "We won't immediately commence the work of rebuilding the Kasumagasaki palace. As a matter of fact, we won't commence it any time soon. Indeed, I think it over. I have a hunch that it is going to be a long, long time before we rebuild that palace—because, first, we're going to feed the people and build temporary homes for them, and then rebuild the city permanently. And after that is done, if there is any spare change left, you might drop around some afternoon and let me have the lowest quotations on palaces."

BUILDING LOAN CO. PLANS TO MOVE OFFICES

Officials of the Central Building & Loan Co., with offices in the city building, have completed plans for moving about the first of the year to the Keystone block on High-st just across the alley from the Shawnee Finance Co. offices.

The front of the ground floor of the Keystone building is being remodeled and a vault is being installed in the rooms. When completed the remodeled offices will give the company one of the most modern building and loan offices in the city, officials said Tuesday.

SEGREGATION IS URGED AS MEANS TO CHECK CRIME

CHICAGO—The only way to solve the problem of increased criminality, caused by a rapid rise in the number of mental defectives in this country, lies in the segregation of the defective delinquents in state controlled colonies where the protective environment which they need can be created, Judge Harry Olson of the Chicago municipal court declared in an address prepared for delivery to delegates to the birth control conference of the mid-western states meeting here today.

"Under such control there is an abrupt end to criminal depravations and to reproduction," Judge Olson said. "Both great needs of society are met. The need of the individual defective is likewise met for he is given an opportunity to live to the limit of his powers."

EX-GRID STAR IS RAILWAY KING

Canada's Great Carrier System Run by American

WINNIPEG—(United Press)—A man who dwarfs Jack Dempsey for size and whose tremendous brawn is controlled by a brain that can out-think any two politicians in the broad Dominion of Canada, a man who fits into the big open spaces of the North Country and into the dignities and suavities of a social order most rigorous; finally, a man imbued with a great kindness and liking for his fellow men—that is Sir Henry Thornton, the American who runs Canada's national railway system.

Of course, he is a Britisher now, and has a title and all that, but that is just by the accident of circumstances. The English have a habit of putting titles and colored ribbons on their achieving men. Sir Henry Thornton, formerly of the University of Pennsylvania football squad, became Sir Henry because he could do things with railroad.

Right now he is wrestling with one of the biggest railroad problems in the world. It is the problem of making a railroad system of 23,000 miles, with a book value of $1,900,000,000, running thru a tremendously rich, but also a new and sparsely settled country, compete successfully with another system, privately owned, with 16,000 miles of lines, most of which parallel Thornton's. Well he won't do it this year; the Canadian government will have to meet a deficit of some $40,000,000 due entirely, however, to the tremendous fixed charges on such enormous investment of capital.

REAL EMPIRE BUILDER

The term "empire builder" was invented to express such men as Thornton. He is building for the future—for the day when Canada, the young giant of the north, will be a land of hundreds of millions of people instead of nine to ten millions, as now. Long before that day comes—and David Lloyd George, no mean prophet, foresees a population of 300,000,000 for Canada eventually—long ere that, Sir Henry's work of today will have justified itself.

He was a notable football player and athletic coach at University of Pennsylvania and Vanderbilt. He started railroading with the Pennsylvania, and eventually was in charge of the Long Island railroad. He was there when the Great Eastern, the British system that runs more trains in a given time than any transportation system on the globe, grabbed him. The House of Commons threw a fit when this husky Yankee was imported to help run a British railroad.

"You folks are noted for your sporting fairness," Thornton said, amid the hubbub. "Give me a sporting chance; that's every last thing I ask."

GAVE HIM A CHANCE
They did. He made good. The British took him to themselves, as witness his title and his tremendous popularity. Then Canada got him—got him by agreeing to put him in sole charge of the Canadian national, a project then in embryo. MacKenzie King, Canadian premier, had to stand up in Commons at Ottawa and pledge his honor that politics and politicians would keep hands off the Canadian national, before Sir Henry would make a bargain to tackle the problem. He took hold last December. Early this spring the Canadian national system as it now is, took form. Before that it was much less extensive.

What happened when Thornton grabbed the throttle? Morale began to rise. "We're going somewhere," Canadian men will tell you today. "I'll say we are."

TED IS ALL SET FOR COLD SPELL

Ted was out early Tuesday gathering coal along the railroad tracks. He kept a good lookout for defective as he is not all anxious to make a trip to Judge Poling's court. The reason for his activity is to be found in the weather report which predicts freezing temperatures Tuesday night. It will be generally fair and the cold weather will continue thru Wednesday. Ted says, "Let it come."

BRITAIN ACCEPTS PARIS TERMS

U. S. DELEGATE IS ON WAY

Hughes' Proposal Under Fire of "Irreconcilables"

(BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON—(United Press)—The plan of Secretary of State Hughes for an economic commission of experts to study Germany's capacity to pay has been accepted by all the powers concerned, it was declared on behalf of the president at the White House today.

LONDON—(Associated Press)—Great Britain has accepted the terms specified by Premier Poincare of France for a conference of experts to consider the reparation question. The American government will be acquainted with the willingness of all the countries concerned in the reparation problem to participate in the conference and will be asked immediately to designate its members of the committee of experts.

NEW YORK—Willis H. Booth, president of the International Chamber of Commerce and vice president of the Guaranty Co., sailed today on the Mauretania for Paris to arrange for a conference of delegates from 35 nations to make recommendations regarding the proposed reparations discussion advocated by Secretary of State Hughes.

Booth was hesitant in discussing the Paris session which begins Nov. 12, but it was reported his hurried trip concern selection of the committee of financial experts, who, under the Hughes plan, would pass on the amount that Germany might be expected to pay.

"I think it will be a very important session," was all Booth would say of the Paris conference.

HUGHES PLAN FOUGHT
WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Further attacks by the "irreconcilables" are to be made against the program of Secretary Hughes for an expert conference to bring about a settlement of the reparations question, it was learned here today.

The statement of Senator Medill McCormick, chairman of the Republican senate campaign committee, was regarded as the first in a campaign of opposition on the Hughes plan.

This opposition may be headed by Senator Frank Johnson of California. "Any body of conferees," McCormick warned, "if it is to command the confidence of the American people, must include a majority who were against the League of Nations and foreign political engagements, a majority of whom the people will distrust."

SWEDISH TENANTS FORM ORGANIZATION TO FIGHT SCARCITY OF DWELLINGS

STOCKHOLM—(Associated Press)—A growing scarcity of unfurnished apartments, accompanied by increasing rents, has induced the flat-dwellers of Sweden to form a national organization, a congress of tenants' societies from all parts of the country having been held at Gothenburg for this purpose.

The protection guaranteed tenants thru this national body will be supplementary to the assistance already afforded by the municipal rent committees and apartment renting agencies.

At the beginning of the new rent year, it is estimated that about 1,000 families in Stockholm and 200 in Gothenburg will be without homes, having been forced to vacate their apartments because of termination of their leases.

Temporary dwellings are being arranged by the municipal authorities, while new apartment houses of American pattern are nearing completion.

In many cases office floors are being remodeled for housekeeping, and it is even being proposed to relieve the situation by renting out cabins of ships in the harbor of Stockholm.

TEACHES 25 SUCCESSIVE YEARS IN SAME ONE-ROOM RURAL SCHOOL

August Heckman Is Also Civic Leader in New Cleveland

PUPILS WIN MANY PRIZES

Buy Tools With Cash Awards From Exhibits At Fairs

NEW CLEVELAND—August Heckman, teacher in the Brickner one-room rural school here, is nominated by his friends in the community for a position at the top of Putnam-co's list of public welfare workers.

Heckman, for 24 years a teacher in the schools of the New Cleveland community, is believed to hold the record for continuous service among Putnam-co teachers. He is now in his 25th year of service.

Always a booster of the county fair, and in fact of any event in the nature of civic uplift, Heckman as usual got behind the work of his pupils for their exhibit at the county fair this fall; the 25th successive year his pupils had entered their work in this exhibit.

Besides his work as a teacher he served six years as county school examiner and is a leader in junior club work. "I believe in the old truth that we learn not for the school but for life," says Heckman.

PRACTICAL STUDIES
"I therefore have not resisted my labors to teaching simply the branches prescribed for the different grades, but also have trained my pupils in practical work."

Attending to the manner in which he has earned out this idea, his boys long have been given regular work in what now is known as manual training, and the girls thru their food club have acquired a practical knowledge of cooking and canning.

The success of these ventures is seen in the number of prizes won annually by the school's entries in the county fair exhibits. For 25 years county fair judges have been awarding Heckman's pupils generous shares of the annual prizes.

The school's prizes during this period include 900 books and an annual cash award of $50 or more, the cash prizes for one year reaching $140. Much of the school's utensils used in actual school work also have been procured in this manner. The money received as prizes is used in carrying on school work, enabling the purchase among other things of a milk tester, work bench, tools, and an oil stove. Nor is the recreation side of school life forgotten as balls, bats and other athletic equipment have also been purchased in this manner.

AWARDS RECEIVED
The recent fair resulted in the New Cleveland boys and girls clubs receiving $78.50 and trips with expenses paid for two of the entrants to the state boys' and girls' club week sessions at Columbus.

The food club received third prize at the state fair last year. The school was accredited with having the best rural school exhibit at the state fair three years in succession.

As an example of Heckman's interest in looking after the personal welfare of his pupils, friends point to the establishment of hot lunches during winter months, a feature which Heckman declares has done much to promote the health of the pupils. This practice, which only recently has been instituted in schools generally, has been an institution in Heckman's school for the last seven years.

Acting on his own initiative, Heckman has established a farmers' night school which is now in its seventh year and which consists of weekly meetings for study and discussion of subjects of interest to the modern farmer. Six times these winter courses were brought to a successful conclusion with farm institutes that commanded the enthusiasm and interest of farmers thruout the section.

Looking back over a career of 25 years in the teaching profession Heckman finds no small measure of satisfaction and recompense for his efforts in the lasting friendships he has made and the constant expressions of gratitude that come to him from former pupils.

Kinsman Of King Spends His Time Hunting, Fishing

ESTAMPES, France—(Associated Press)—The finest room in Hotel de la Poste of Estampes, a community of 2,000 inhabitants near here, has been rented for several years by a distinguished old gentleman of noble bearing, who spends most of his time hunting and fishing. There are few who know that at the end of each week when the bill is presented to the elderly gentleman it reads: "To one room; Oct. 3 to 7; France 35.00" and that it is addressed to "His Royal Highness, the Duke of Galliera."

Grandson of Louis Philippe, king of France, uncle of Alfonso III, king of Spain, and cousin of the Duke of Galliera has chosen this quiet spot to pass his declining years.

At first his identity was kept secret but a few weeks ago, when the Duke of Montpenser was decorated with the ribbon of the Legion of Honor, a telegram addressed to the Duke of Galliera reached Hotel de la Poste, and the proprietor was on the verge of returning it to the telegraph office when the quiet old man claimed it. It was signed "Philippe" and read: "Dear cousin, many thanks for congratulations."

Since then the natives have addressed him as "His Royal Highness."

"I wish they would call me 'Monsieur Antoine' as they used to," the Duke of Galliera said recently.

ALLEY IS CLOSED BY ORDINANCE

Action Gives Railroad a Spur, Doesn't Isolate Lots

Ordinances vacating alleys, transferring funds and giving the city manager power to make certain contracts were passed by the city commissioners at their meeting Monday night.

Under the terms of an ordinance, Kelly Brothers get a 16-foot alley leading to 5 Atlantic-av closed so the Erie railroad can run a switch to their coal yard. But in return for this the coal men must give the city a deed to a 12 foot strip of land which will provide a passageway from lots on the closed alley to Atlantic-av and they must maintain the alley besides putting in the cross-walks.

Orders for the transfer of $1,500 from the depository interest fund to the public safety fund in order that the salaries of firemen, policemen, row due, can be paid, are contained in an ordinance passed Monday night. The purpose of the transfer is to save the city the expense of borrowing money to pay the salaries and paying interest on that borrowed money.

Under another ordinance City Manager Bingham is empowered to make a contract with the Erie railroad for the city to have an easement in the company's right of way on Main-st and on S. Metcalf-st so the city can build sewers under the railroad tracks at these two points. The city gets the right of way free. Another ordinance declares it necessary to improve Carlisle-av from Fairview-av to Second-st by sewerage. The work is to be done entirely at the expense of the property owners.

AMERICA DISCOVERED LONG BEFORE COLUMBUS, DR. HARRINGTON THINKS

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. — (Associated Press) — As a result of further excavations where the skulls of pre-historic men were found by Smithsonian Institution investigators last Thursday, scientists are more firmly convinced that one of the most important scientific discoveries of recent years has been made. Minus inspection of the skulls, and of the formation in which they were imbedded, continues to point to the great remoteness of the era in which the Santa Barbara man lived, declares Dr. J. P. Harrington, who uncovered the skeletons, reiterating his original assertion that the discovery would bring about a complete revision of anthropological theories concerning the North American continent. The skulls, with the beeling brows and receding foreheads, he declared, definitely establish, in his opinion, the fact that North America has discovered thousands of years before Columbus' historic arrival by primitive ape-like men just in the transitory period from anthropoid to man, who crossed from Asia by way of Behring Strait, found an uninhabited land and laid the foundation of aboriginal civilization.

ANOTHER PLANT SITE IS PURCHASED BY FORD

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common disease that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the stem.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys should have attention first because their work is most important.

If you feel that your kidneys are the cause of your sickness or run down condition commence taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney liver and bladder medicine, because as soon as your kidneys begin to improve they will help all the other organs to health.

A Trial Will Convince Anyone
Thousands and thousands of people

SPECIAL NOTE—You may obtain a sample size bottle of Swamp-Root by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. This gives you the opportunity to prove the remarkable merit of this medicine. They will send you a book of valuable information, containing many of the thousands of grateful letters received from men and women who say they found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed in kidney, liver and bladder troubles. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample size bottle. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure and mention this paper.

everywhere have testified that the mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized, and that it stands the highest for its remarkable results in distressing cases.

Symptoms of Kidney Trouble
Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequently passing water night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brick-dust or sediment, headache, backache, lame back, heart disturbance due to bad kidney trouble, uric acid rheumatism, lumbago, loss of flesh or yellow complexion, kidney trouble in its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Bus Lines Proven Irresponsible

Operating bus lines, commonly called "Shoestring" transportation companies, were dealt a hard blow a short time ago by the Supreme Court of Illinois.

The court stated that if such "Shoestring" companies, with no money invested in right of way and no reserve capital to provide adequate service or to protect the public from damage, were permitted to operate, disastrous results would be inevitable.

Des Moines, Iowa, Battle Creek and Muskegan, Michigan, tried to substitute motor busses for street cars but without avail—on rainy days women and old men stood on the street corners waiting for transportation that didn't come. Anybody that wanted a ride had to be able and willing to scramble for it, and as a result accidents multiplied so rapidly that the public soon insisted upon the return of the street cars.

When busses are operated in competition with the street railway company, the car and bus riders pay for the duplicate service in the form of fares, taxes, street assessments, accidents, or traffic jams.

It was decided June 19th, 1923 by the Supreme Court of Ohio, in the case of the Village of Perrysburg against Ridgway that, the power to establish, open, improve, maintain and repair public streets within the municipality, and fully control the care of them, is included within the term "Powers of Local Self Government."

Mellon Hits Back at Pennsylvania Governor

DUTY OF STATE IS CITED

Powers Sufficient to Enforce Law, Secretary Says

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Powers which may be invoked by the state authorities in conditions in Pennsylvania were cited by Secretary Mellon in a letter published today, to Governor Pinchot in which he declared the Pennsylvania executive's assertions that the treasury was not cooperating by every means to that end were "gratuitous and not founded in fact."

Replying categorically to Pinchot's criticisms of federal prohibition enforcement in his letter to Mellon on Sunday, the treasury head declared in conclusion that it would be more profitable to "expend energies" in an effort to ascertain the "real facts" and better enforce the law than in "unjustified criticism."

Breweries and distilleries detected in violation of the law are being dealt with in strict accordance with its provisions. Mellon said in citing the action taken in a number of cases in Pennsylvania brought up in Pinchot's letter. Before the Pennsylvania executive had raised the question, Mellon said, he had "already directed that a survey of breweries and of allowance of alcohol for non-beverage purposes" be made in that state.

While stating that, as desired by Pinchot, he would authorize in federal permits the inspection of distilleries and breweries by the Pennsylvania enforcement authorities, Mellon in this connection called the governor's attention to "the authority for inquiry which you already have under the laws of your own state."

Under this state authority he said, the means of obtaining search warrants for such a purpose were more readily available than under the federal statute.

SUMMER WEATHER IS EXPERIENCED IN ALASKA

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — As one result of the unseasonably warm weather Alaska is experiencing, citizens of this city tomorrow night will see their first fireworks display in 21 years. The exhibition was arranged by a local newspaper so children could see how their fellow in lower latitudes celebrate the national birthday. Fireworks displays here on July 4, are impossible on account of the 24 hours of day light at that season.

There is no sign of snow on the hills and nights have been like summer. The temperature has been between 40 and 60 degrees above zero.

SWINDLED OUT OF ROOM RENT, WARRANT ALLEGES

Warrant for arrest of Mrs. Loretta Walters, formerly of 133 Wayne-st, was issued Monday in criminal court upon complaint of Mrs. Vera Gibson, who alleges she was swindled out of $9 room rent by the woman.

In filing her affidavit Mrs. Gibson said Mrs. Walters rented her rooms at 133 Wayne-st after Mrs. Louise Morvillous, the owner of the property, had ordered Mrs. Walters to move. The warrant is for obtaining money under false pretenses.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

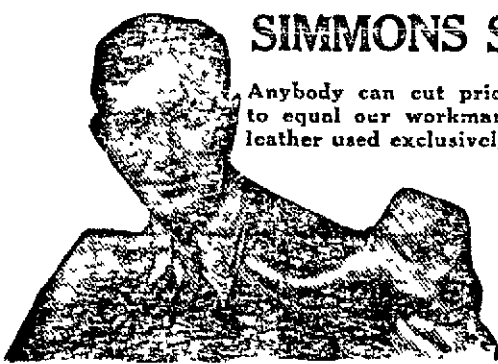

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Kovacs Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

TAKING BATH HER RECREATION

Life of Illinois Farm Woman Is Described

QUESTIONNAIRE ANSWERED

Mowing Mother Ends Day by Putting Kids to Bed

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — (Associated Press) — One woman in Illinois plows a corn field eight hours a day and then finds her greatest recreation in "putting the kids to bed," while another lists as a recreation "taking a bath," according to answers to a questionnaire sent Illinois housewives by the Home Economics Association assisted by the Household Science department of the Illinois Farmers' Institute.

From the plowing woman to the mother who, at the end of a hard day sought her pleasure in "listening to the music of the birds," the answers tell a vivid story of life in Illinois homes. The home maker, extolled by others in song and story, finally has written her own epic, officials of the economics association believe.

The purpose of the questionnaire was to gather information on which to base a practical schedule of household work, giving woman an equitable ratio of work and recreation.

SHARING OF WORK

The women were asked the size of the family, number of boys and girls, names of father and mother, their ages, whether there were any relatives living in the home dependent on the family, how much time was devoted to household work, how much to recreation, and what sort of labor saving apparatus was in the home. The questionnaire was accompanied by seven blank pages on which the women were to put down their schedule of work for each day in the week.

The answers showed that there is greater sharing of work and play in the farm home than in the city home. That is, country women work more and play more than do city women. It also shows that in the homes of the high grade workmen there was a fine cooperation between husband and wife and children. The size of the home averaged eight rooms, although it varied from two to 18. One-third of the homes reported no pantries, and one-third had no aths.

Other facts brought out were: Forty per cent of the women carried the water they used from wells, while about 60 per cent had running water. One-half of the homes were lighted by electricity, one-tenth by gas and one-third by lamps. Fuel for cooking showed many combinations, but wood was more used than any other fuel, then came coal and oil, coal in winter and oil in summer, and in one home only corn cobs were used. Thirty-two per cent of the homes had furnaces and 33 stoves.

Man 74 Years Old Is "Rejuvenated" In 3 Weeks Without Gland Operation

Kansas Contractor Tells of Wonderful Results Obtained in Test of New Scientific Discovery

Thomas J. Glascock, 74, well-known Kansas contractor, declares he has virtually been made young again by the recently discovered korex compound, which is pronounced superior to "gland treatments" as an invigorator and revitalizer.

"I feel like I did at 35," says Mr. Glascock, "and seem to be getting stronger every day. During my three weeks' use of the new discovery, pains and weaknesses of many years' standing disappeared almost magically. Today I am as vigorous and supple as I was in the prime of life. Furthermore, when I began using the compound, my memory was virtually gone and I was almost blind. Now my mind is clear and active and I can read the finest print without difficulty."

In order to find out whether the results were lasting, Mr. Glascock waited six months before reporting on his test of the discovery. On this point he says:

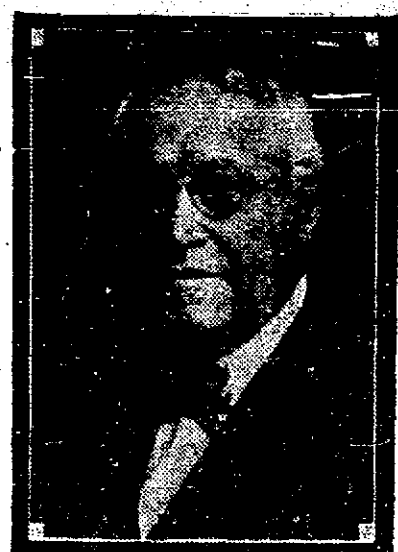

"Every passing day strengthens my conviction that my restoration is not only complete but permanent. I can't express the happiness this great discovery has brought to me. It has made me 'young' again."

Similar reports are being made almost daily. For instance, D. W. Wood of New Orleans, past 60 years of age, says: "The compound has brought me back to as good, healthy physical condition as I enjoyed at 35. I am apparently as supple as at 25 and my eyesight is better than for years. I would not take $5,000 for what the discovery has done for me."

The compound is a simple home treatment in tablet form, absolutely harmless, yet rated as the quickest and most powerful invigorator known. Acting directly on lower spinal nerve centers and certain glands and blood vessels, it often brings amazing benefits in 24 to 36 hours, according to thousands who have tested it.

"It is wonderful," writes a resident of Hollister, Cal. "In less than 24 hours you can feel it does the work. It makes one feel young as a young man. I am more than happy and glad I tried it." Another Californian says: "The compound is a world's wonder. I feel like I was about 25 and here I am nearly fifty!"

The compound has been tested in all parts of the country and has won the praises of thousands who suffered from nerve weakness, lost or depleted vigor, neurasthenia, premature age, impaired glandular activity and lack of animation and vital force. Its effects seem to be virtually the same on both young and old. Physicians say the principal ingredient of the compound gives speedy satisfaction in obstinate cases that defy all other treatments. Elderly people pronounce the discovery a real "fountain of youth."

Realizing that thousands of enfeebled, half-alive folk may consider such news "too good to be true," the American distributors have agreed to supply a double-strength treatment of the discovery on a guaranteed trial basis to everyone in need of such a preparation. If you wish to test the money-back guarantee, write in strict confidence to the Melton Laboratories, 3753 Melton Building, Kansas City, Mo., for a two-dollar treatment of korex compound, mailed in a plain, sealed wrapper. You may enclose two dollars, or simply send your name, without money, and pay two dollars and postage on delivery, as you prefer. In either case, however, if you report within ten days that you are not satisfied, the laboratories will refund you the purchase price and refund the purchase price upon request. These laboratories are nationally known and thoroughly reliable, so nobody need hesitate about accepting their guaranteed offer.

20 ROAD HOUSES ARE CLOSED

Resorts Near Chicago Hit by War Against Liquor

MORE INJUNCTIONS SOUGHT

1,000 Saloons in Windy City Put Out of Business

CHICAGO — (Associated Press)—Chicago's "bone dry" area, limited to the city proper during Mayor Dever's dry law enforcement campaign, is extending its territory to suburbs as Federal Judge Adam C. Cliffe continues to act on injunction suits against violators of the Volstead law. More than a score road houses and suburban soft drink parlors were closed as a result of injunction orders issued yesterday and more than 150 petitions for injunctions sealing for one year property used in violating the Volstead law are to be heard by Judge Cliffe during the week.

OUTSIDE OF CITY

Many of the places which the government seeks to close are located beyond the jurisdiction of the city police, whose campaign has resulted in closing more than 1,000 saloons. While the federal orders went out against outlying saloons and liquor resorts, a police order was issued requiring proprietors of downtown coffee shops to do away with swinging doors, bar rails and other fixtures reminiscent of the old time saloon.

Owners of 29 downtown soft drink parlors who have not had their licenses revoked were told they would be put on their honor if they followed the order. Detectives making hourly visits to these shops for 24 hours a day have found no violations.

ASKS DIVORCE, ALIMONY AND ATTORNEY'S FEES

Assertions that her health is too feeble to permit her to toil, are incorporated in a motion asking alimony and attorney's fees filed in court Monday by Mrs. Loda Kipker, waitress, Ada, defendant in a divorce action brought by Henry Kipker, son of a well-to-do Hardin-co farmer.

The court is asked to award her a suitable sum, calculated to maintain her, and also to order Kipker to pay her an amount sufficient to hire an attorney.

Two Lima wives were given their freedom in common pleas court Monday.

Mrs. Bernice Stiles received custody of her children, under a decree granted from Milton J. Stiles. The husband retains the right to visit however.

A decree was granted Mrs. Florence Bacone, divorcing her from Arley Bacone, on neglect grounds.

All Unstrung

RELIEVED BY PLANT JUICE

"Since I have taken your Plant Juice medicine my husband says I am like myself again and I know I certainly am improved," said Mrs. J. M. Fe Kette, of 109 Belleville-av., Newark, N. J., while talking with The Plant Juice Man recently.

MRS. J. M. FE KETTE

"I tried about everything and, altho it seemed like nothing would help me, my husband said there surely must be some medicine that would give me relief and so I kept on trying and finally found your Plant Juice and it has just done wonders for me. I suffered with my stomach; lacked an appetite and had to live on the lightest kind of food. Eating meat or anything with grease in it was out of the question and what little food I did eat would not digest but would ferment and sour and cause gas to form and this gas would sometimes work up around my heart and I would get so weak that I would almost faint away. My bowels were constipated; nerves were all unstrung so that I could not sleep and my liver and kidneys were disordered, causing headaches, bilious attacks, dizzy spells and terrible pains in my back.

"Your Plant Juice has changed all of these conditions. I have a better appetite and can eat foods that I did not dare to eat before. I have been relieved of the gas and bloating; bowels are regular as clock-work now and my liver and kidneys work fine. I do not have the biliousness, headaches, dizzy spells or the pains across my back anymore. And my nerves are quieted so that I sleep well. I have changed so much that my husband says I am like my real self once more. I have already recommended Plant Juice to a number of my friends and now gladly indorse it to the public in general."

Plant Juice is sold in Lima at Hunter's drug stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne-sts and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.

BUILDING CODE IS HELD UP

Commissioners Fail to Agree on Provisions

WOOD SHINGLES DISCUSSED

Thickness of Walls Another Mistake, is Belief

By the owner, builder or architect, "free of charge." Commissioner Harley insisted that the commission has no right to say whether an architect or builder shall or shall not charge for extra copies of plans he draws for a house. No decision was reached.

Commissioner Jones objected to a charge of $1 per "0.0" in cost of repairs or alterations where permits for this work is done. He suggested that the rate be $1 for alterations under $1,000 while for alterations from $1,000 to $5,000 he would charge a permit fee of $1,000 for alterations over $5,000 to $10,000 a fee of $1 per $1,000 and for alterations over $10,000 a fee of $5 cents per $1,000. His plan, it was figured out would make the man who put in $11,000 worth of alterations pay about $4 less than the man who put in $10,000 worth of alterations because the rate is so much lower.

WALLS TOO THICK

There was general objection to Section 227 regulating the thickness of walls. City Manager Bingham opened the protest by saying that the requirements for 13 inch walls on one and two story houses is too much and they should not be over eight inches thick. All commissioners agreed to that suggestion. There was also objection to a nine inch partition wall on one and two story buildings where the wall is not a supporting wall and further objection to the provision that on four story buildings the walls should be 16 inches thick with an increase of four inches for each two or a half stories added to the building, thus making a six story carry a 22 inch fire wall.

Commissioners found dissatisfaction with the provision for a 12 inch fire wall for frame buildings used for commercial purposes when the buildings are not over two stories high.

At this point Mayor Cunningham suggested that the commissioners take up the other sections of the code at some other meeting. Monday night was fixed as the time for further discussion of the code.

COAL DELIVERY

Prior to the regular meeting, the code was under discussion for a short time, and Mayor Cunningham insisted that provision be made in the code whereby coal chutes shall be constructed so that coal can be put into basements of business blocks either from the rear of the building or from the edge of the curb. This, he said, would prevent obstructing business streets with coal chutes across the sidewalks.

Discussion of various provisions of the proposed code brought out the fact that commissioners believe ordinances regulating the appointment and duties of the building inspector and the proposed electrical inspector should be separate and distinct from the code ordinance itself.

It was also made plain that the present commission will not contain provision for more than one building or more than one electrical inspector. Both officers are to be paid from the fees which they collect for inspection work and thus it is planned to make the buildings pay the cost of their inspection.

QUART OF WATER CLEANS KIDNEYS

Take a Little Salts If Your Back Hurts, or Bladder is Troubling You

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. adv

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germs.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomas, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist for Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga. Adv.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, gray hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This has always been depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of gray hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it deters so naturally, and evenly, that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge with soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and soft.

PLEA FOR SWITCH CAUSES STIR

Officials See Grade Crossing Danger Enhanced Here

Another grade crossing on E. Market-st. will be provided in the city if the commissioners grant a petition presented to them Monday night by W. L. McKenzie, attorney for F. W. Drake who asked that the commission allow the Baltimore & Ohio railroad to lay tracks across E. Market-st. to give a switch into the coal yard of Minor Evans.

Under the terms as set forth in the petition Drake is to pay the expense of the switch, putting in the street car tracks, fixing the street and putting in a watchman's shanty. In his letter the attorney said that the coal yard cannot longer be operated by his client or his lessee unless the permit for the switch is granted.

Commissioners and the city manager will visit the site of the proposed switch before deciding on the petition. During the discussion Mayor Cunningham suggested there should be a subway on E. Market-st. to get rid of all the tracks at grade.

In the informal discussion before the regular session, the commissioners took up the petition and Rohn said the company ought to have the switch. In his letter the attorney said the lessee will give up his lease on the coal yard if he cannot have a switch so he can run coal cars into the yard for unloading purposes. Commissioners are generally averse, they let it be known Monday night, to increasing the grade crossing hazards in this city and they pointed out that to grant the McKenzie petition would add another crossing on E. Market-st. and make six tracks to be crossed there.

DR. J. J. SUTTER WARNS AGAINST TRICHINOSIS

Warning against Trichinosis, a disease caused by eating flesh of infected hogs which has not been sufficiently cooked, is given by Dr. John J. Sutter, county health commissioner. Dr. Sutter says that four or five reports on persons suffering with Trichinosis have been received at his office during the past two months.

Dr. Sutter said the disease is also prevalent among rats, mice, dogs, cats and other animals. Hogs and rats catch trichinosis by eating offal from slaughter houses, meat shops, and from meats discarded from kitchens. From one to two per cent of the hogs in this country are trichinosis, Dr. Sutter says.

First symptoms of the disease after eating affected meat will appear in one to three weeks. These conditions are frequently mistaken for signs of rheumatism or acute military tuberculosis, etc.

United States Department of Animal Husbandry warns persons not to eat pork or sausage containing pork, whether it has been officially inspected or not, until after it has been properly cooked. Fresh pork should be cooked until it becomes white and is no longer red in color in all portions of the piece.

ENGLISH COURSE REVISED

Board of Education Prepares Illustrated Booklet

Publication containing revision in the course of English has been completed by the board of education and is the result of action taken by the board at the close of the last school year.

At that time provision was made for additions to the various school libraries during the summer vacation period, and such a revision of the course as would include these changes and additions for the guidance of teachers and, as in the case of the former course, for parents as well who wish to follow up in the home the work of the school.

More than 9,000 volumes have been added to the grade and high school libraries for the free use of pupils.

The revision of the English curriculum both for the grades and high school has been prepared by the board in the hope of giving specific organization to the content of the several courses for the use of pupils, teachers and parents.

Booklet also give a synopsis of the work in art both in the grades and high school. Brief reference is given to the new buildings planned and under construction. Nine thousand copies are being printed for the board of education which will be distributed to pupils for perusal in the home.

SUPPORT DENIED HER FOR 15 YEARS, WIFE CHARGES

Charges that William Henry Lewis, Woodlawn and Wayne-st., failed to provide for her support during the last 15 years of their married life, are incorporated in a divorce petition filed in common pleas court Tuesday by Mrs. Marian Ella Lewis.

Three years ago he left her, she says and that the two have lived separate since. The couple were married in Muncie, Ind., in 1886, the petition states.

The wife alleges she has been largely dependent on friends for her support for many years past.

Silks and Velvets

Sponsored By Fashion

Gorgeous effects have been achieved in the silks and velvets this season. Truly fabrics were never lovelier. They have taken on the courtly elegance of days when knights were bold, and the colorings are rich and luxurious.

Serpentine Crepe - - - - - $3.50

A beautiful silk and wool fabric, well adapted for the charming trottour costumes that are so popular. Cocoa, cinnamon, navy, gray, brown, black, Marro Tan, Copen, Royal, and Mohawk.

Twilight Crepe - - - - - $3.50

An unusual silk-and-wool crepe in an interesting cork-screw weave, with a reverse of shining satin. Navy, brown, black, cocoa, cinnamon, gray. This fabric is especially nice for the conventional straight-line long-sleeved frock that every woman likes for street or business wear.

Brocaded Crepe - - - - - $2.98

A handsome, soft material in which the beautiful designs are brought out by a satin sheen. These crepe de chimes are perfect for colorful little dance frocks, or luxurious negligees, or clever lingerie, or the most wonderful of linings for "extra special" dress-up wear.

Satin Crepe - - - - - $3.75

Perhaps the most popular of all silks for general wear in fall. It drapes simply into the plainer frocks or lends itself enchantingly to the more complicated godets and puffs that some of the new dresses show. Navy, black, brown, cocoa, gray, coral, Neptune, Royal and other shades.

Chiffon Velvet - - - - - $4.95

For long, flowing gowns or quaint picture frocks, this soft, lustrous black silk chiffon velvet is ideal!

Lovely Velvets - - - - - $5.50

And velvet was never before in greater favor, nor were its colorings ever more beautiful. We particularly call your attention to the chic Parisian shades of blue and the warm new browns that autumn presents. An excellent quality.

Voivelle Cord - - - - - $1.50

For warm, cuddly negligees and house gowns or youthful straight-line dresses, this velvety material is shown in many new fall shades.

Missouri Politician Quizzed by Senate Committee

HOSPITAL DEAL UNDER FIRE

Former Lowden Manager Gives $173,000 for Property

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Circumstances surrounding the acquisition of a hospital site at Excelsior Springs, Mo., today came under further scrutiny before the special senate committee investigating the affairs of the veterans' bureau.

E. L. Morse, a widely known figure in Missouri Republican politics and manager of the Lowden campaign in that state in 1920, was questioned in great detail about the deal by which the site, of which he was owner, passed under government control.

Documents and records from which Gen. John F. O'Ryan, counsel for the committee, read showed Morse received a final payment from the veterans' bureau of $173,000. Among the individual items was the $90,000 agreed price for the Morse homestead, $28,100 for the additional land which Morse purchased in an agreement with the government and $56,237 which Morse had expended in additions to the original building.

These made a total of $182,337, and after deducting the rental paid by the government in 1921, Gen. O'Ryan said the sum due Morse in the final settlement apparently was $173,346. He added that there were no records to show how the round sum of $173,000 was arrived at.

Morse said that of the total acreage he originally had purchased for the $26,100, he retained 26 or 27 lots which the government did not need. The value of these lots was not determined but Morse agreed to furnish the committee with figures showing the tax assessments levied against them.

Gen. O'Ryan then read into the record an affidavit by J. J. Kendrick, a real estate dealer of Kansas City who appraised the total value of the existing plant at not in excess of $50,000.

Morse then proposed to the committee that the plant be reappraised, saying he would be willing to refund to the government the difference between the total of the appraisement and the total he received from the veterans' bureau.

His offer contemplated the appointment of an appraiser by the veterans' bureau and one by himself, it was thus selected, to name a third.

Under further questions Morse conceded that he later had used his position as a means of securing the present abandonment of the hospital at Excelsior Springs.

DRAMATIC REVELATION

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — The sensational investigation of the veterans' bureau, originally authorized as a matter of fact inquiry into the administration of a government bureau, began to take shape today as a dramatic revelation of human passions.

Through the testimony regarding the conduct of the veterans' bureau during the period Colonel Charles Forbes was director, has run the violent undertone of Forbes' animosity with Elias H. Mortimer. It culminated with the revelation by James N. Williams, elderly Philadelphia mill owner, of the story of Mrs. Mortimer planning a divorce with the assistance of Colonel Forbes.

RESTRAINED BY COUNSEL

Forbes sitting at the table not far from the witness, half rose, his face distorted with anger, and snarled "that's a lie" and was only restrained by the insistence of his personal counsel, Colonel James Easby-Smith.

The revelation of the melodrama underlying the investigation began last Wednesday, when Mortimer, his face hard and set, his voice ringing with repressed anger, brought the most serious charges against Forbes.

Mortimer frankly admitted to the committee that for many he had been so friendly with Forbes that he, Mrs. Mortimer and Forbes had traveled together, there had occurred something that changed this intimacy to violent hatred.

It was this hatred, Mortimer intimated, that impelled him to make public the many accusations against Forbes concerning which he testified.

LIQUOR ARGUMENTS HEARD BY JUDGE FRED C. BECKER

Decision in the error proceedings instituted in common pleas court by counsel for Cad Laycock charged with possession of liquor and now serving sentence in Atlanta penitentiary, on another charge was taken under advisement by Judge Fred C. Becker Tuesday.

Laycock was arrested in a S. Pierce-st residence by state deputy agents more than a year ago. He was subsequently fined $1,000, but carried the case up on the question that officers had no authority to invade his house without a warrant.

SHERIFF TO "MUG" PRISONERS

Finger Prints and Pictures Required Under New State Law

Bootleggers and other offenders who are apprehended in Allen county in the future are to be "mugged" and finger printed by Sheriff Crosson, who will forward the identification to a central bureau at Columbus.

The finger prints are to be made in accordance with House Bill 98 which requires police heads, and sheriffs in Ohio to take prints and pictures of all persons under arrest charged with felony.

The prints are to be forwarded to the bureau of criminal investigation at Ohio state penitentiary. In case the prisoner is not found guilty, the prints will be turned over to him on written request.

Finger prints of persons charged with misdemeanors, which includes liquor violations can also be made when the officer deems it necessary for the purpose of subsequent identification.

Under this head Sheriff Crosson plans to fingerprint all bootleggers arrested, especially strangers who may be caught passing thru.

Another new law affecting women prisoners, is the amendment to the law under which women more than 16 years old, sentenced or committed to all for non-payment of fines, for more than 30 days, are to be sent to the state reformatory.

FIRM'S OFFICIALS INDICTED

Grand Larceny Charged to Oil Company Members

NEW YORK — (Associated Press)

— Charged with both of the treasury of the Emerich Oil Co. of Delaware with offices here and in Wichita Falls, Texas, three officials of the company are facing eight indictments for grand larceny. Testimony by former Governor Charles S. Hockel, of Oklahoma, formed the basis on which some of the indictments were returned.

John F. Emerich, former president of the company, who now is in Los Angeles; Edward D. Davenport, vice president, and J. Ben Ross, Los Angeles, a director, are accused in the indictments of stealing at various times almost $100,000 from the company.

One indictment charged that Davenport and Ross stole $20,000 from the company. Another alleged that Davenport and Emerich stole $45,000 while a third accused Davenport and Emerich of taking $25,000. The other five indictments, returned against Davenport only, charged that on five different dates he took $200 additional.

POISONED MEAT WIPES OUT RABIES IN HAITI

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti — (Associated Press) — When the American sanitary service found itself confronted with an epidemic of rabies in Port-au-Prince, it went to the heart of the matter by going after the dogs, the numberless dogs that infest the city streets, and rounded world-wide travelers of Constantinople, so they tell us.

The citizens were given due notice, and then a liberal supply of poisoned meat was distributed throughout the city. The resulting mortality met the most sanguine expectations, and the menace of rabies came to an end.

Charges of attempted assault preferred against Emmett Baber, by Mrs. R. N. Plummer, Berryman addition, were dismissed as groundless by Justice of the Peace W. H. Guyton Tuesday.

LOOTING WILL BE CAMPAIGN ISSUE

Result of Probe Into Teapot Dome Oil Leasing

TAKEN UP BY DEMOCRATS

Republicans Accused of Yielding to Interests

(BY WILLIAM J. LOSH)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Looting of the public domain by "the interests," one of the campaign issues of years ago, is to be resurrected and vigorously voted in 1924 by the Democrats as a result of revelations made in the senate investigation of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve leasing deal.

Under the careful guidance of Senator Thomas J. Walsh, Democrat, of Montana, the inquiry which is swinging into its second week here, has ammunition for "issues" which may be briefly stated as follows:

The Democrats under the Wilson administration viewing the rapacity with which the great oil interests were seizing available oil fields, for immediate development, set aside three great newly discovered fields for use of the navy in the future when all is serene.

RESERVES RELEASED

The Republicans, so the "issue" is stated, under the Harding administration, subjected to pressure of the great oil interests who were heavy contributors to G. O. P. campaign funds, released the reserves under various pretexts to commercial companies, who needed oil for their refineries.

The senate probe now going on was originally limited to scrutiny of the leasing of Teapot Dome to the Sinclair oil interests by former Secretary of the Interior, T. H. Nelson, who has forced into the open a number of mysterious deals resulting in the freeing of reserves one and two in California. Vigorously interrogating witnesses, Walsh has forced admission that will certainly be aired in the senate next winter and probably be made the subject of further investigation.

THEFT OF $75,000 REPORTED

Salesman Claims Thieves Got Diamonds and Jewelry

CINCINNATI — (Associated Press)

— Diamonds and jewelry valued at $75,000 were stolen from a room on the third floor of the Sinton hotel here late last night, according to a report made today by E. F. Straus, Chicago, who said he represents two firms of New York jewelers and importers.

Straus said the jewelry was the property of Chaifetz and Zolotar, and Bernard West of New York. Straus told police his trunk containing the jewelry had been smashed in and two trays of jewelry had been taken from it. Straus said he checked the trunk in Indianapolis for Cincinnati early last night. He arrived in Cincinnati at 9 o'clock, with three jewelry salesmen whom he well knew. The four attended a party. When Straus returned from his party he discovered his loss, he told the police.

Detectives who are investigating the robbery say they believe two men who checked out from the hotel early today, stole the diamonds and jewelry. The men occupied a room adjoining that of Straus and told the clerk they were obliged suddenly to leave.

EL KARAN GROTTTO TO HOLD FIRST DANCE OF THE SEASON WEDNESDAY

Seasonable refreshments will be served during the evening.

RIGHT TO OFFICE OF POLICE CHIEF CHALLENGED

CLEVELAND — The right of Jacob Graul to the title and office of chief of police was to be challenged in the courts late today by County Prosecutor Stanton.

Stanton declared he would proceed at once in common pleas court with the filing of quo warranto proceedings requested by Police Lieutenant Andrew J. Hagan and Emmett J. Pao, on the grounds that Chief Graul has passed a competitive examination for the chiefship as provided in the general code of Ohio.

At the same time Sheriff Martin expressed the view that even if the courts held Graul was not entitled to his chiefship, he could not take away from him his deputy inspectorship, held under a previous civil service rating.

TWO SCHOOL BUS WRECK

CLEVELAND — Two of the Rooktown school bus victims are asking $75,000 damages each from the Pennsylvania Railroad. The suits were filed in federal court here.

MODERN PORTIA

Miss Anna E. Hogan, Jersey City, is not yet 25 years of age, but already has won many legal victories. She recently was engaged to defend a man charged in Hackensack, N. J., with first degree murder. She succeeded in getting a second degree verdict with recommendation of mercy.

GIVEN LIFE TERM FOR MURDER OF HIS WIFE

CLEVELAND — Cologers Franchetta, 55, was sentenced to life imprisonment today by Common Pleas Judge McMahon, when he entered a plea of guilty to second degree murder in the slaying of his wife, Phyllis.

Franchetta was charged with first degree murder. The murder occurred August 23 in the home of the man's daughter.

NIGHT SCHOOL TO BEGIN SOON

Superintendent Collins Completes Program

SESSIONS START NOV. 7

Large Selections of Subjects Offered Students

Seventh annual term of night schools conducted by the Lima public schools will begin Wednesday, November 7 and will be held in Central and South High schools. Superintendent J. E. Collins announced Tuesday.

Night school courses will be a part of the regular school work, the night school program being supported by state and federal aid. Classes will be held Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p. m. and will be taught by competent instructors. Term will continue for 20 weeks and the registration fee will be $2.

STUDENTS MUST REGISTER

Students contemplating attending the term are asked to register either on Thursday or Friday night, November 1 and 2, or on Monday, November 5, between 7 and 9 p. m.

During the six years that night schools have been conducted by the public schools, over 4,000 students attended classes. Superintendent Collins looks for a large enrollment this term.

Sessions will be open for students between the ages of 16 and 18, who are out of the day schools. Those enrolling must produce employment certificates.

SUBJECTS OFFERED

Large selection of vocational and non-vocational subjects will be taught this term. Included in the vocational subjects are: Automobile, motor truck construction, care and repair; blue print reading; cabinet and pattern making; dressmaking advanced and beginning; cooking; course for stationary firemen; electricity; machine shop, forge and foundry; millinery; sheet metal; a o p mechanics; telegraph; welding acetylene and electric.

Non-vocational subjects: Americanization; book-keeping; business arithmetic; shorthand; elementary school subjects; junior high school subjects; Spanish.

Other courses will be organized upon request of 15 or more students. Complete information as to details on subjects and at which school subjects will be taught will be given when students register.

CITY OFFICES TAKEN OVER BY BOYS AT CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI — Glenn Riggs, 15, is mayor of Cincinnati today. And that's not all — every job in the city government is held by a boy, regular city officials having abdicated for the day.

It is all a part of the observance of boys' week. Mayor Riggs is a student at Hughes High school and president of the public school civic and vocational training league.

MERCHANTS MAKE SECOND ROUND OF INDUSTRIES

Both groups of retail merchants Tuesday afternoon made the second of their visits to Lima industries. Despite inclement weather, a good crowd turned out. As on last Tuesday, one group started at one end of the itinerary and the other group at the opposite end so that both groups saw the same industries.

Industrial plants visited Tuesday were Solar Refining Co., Lima Woolen Mills, Vapo Stove Works, Bernhard Boiler Co., Delsel-Wimmer plant, Steiner Brothers and Lima Sheet Metal Products Co.

Wednesday the groups of professional, real estate, financial and insurance men will cover the same itinerary.

Next week the last of the visits will be held, the merchants going Tuesday and the other groups on Wednesday.

CLUES TRACED IN MYSTERY DEATH

Laundry Marks May Aid in Solving Lebanon Murder

VICTIM IS FOUND IN CREEK

Man Slain by Blow on Temple Autopsy Shows

LEBANON, Ohio — (Associated Press) — Convicted that the slain victim whose body was found in a creek near here Sunday was a victim of a murder, county officials have called in private detectives to assist them in clearing up the mystery.

An autopsy performed on the body by Dr. Walter Blair of Lebanon, revealed that death was due to a blow on the temple, caused by a stone on the left temple.

The man had been dead a month, the physician said. The fact that the body was partially clothed led officials to believe the man was slain in a home and removed to the place where body was found.

Detectives today were investigating the find of laundry marks on the clothing in the hope that a murder victim might be thus identified.

HEALTH MEET

Regular monthly meeting of county board of health will be held Thursday afternoon at which the board will appoint a member to succeed A. J. Gray who resigns from the board at the last meeting following a ruling from the state general of Ohio that a county commissioner could not serve in capacities.

COX TELLS 'EM

WHEN former Governor James M. Cox of Ohio accepted an invitation to take part in the campaign in Kentucky during this week, there was considerable speculation as to the position he would take in handling the question of America's participation in international affairs—or rather the lack of it.

The Ohioan has answered that question, in his own way. A summary of his utterances before the greatest crowds Kentucky ever witnessed in a political campaign discloses that he has not deviated one iota from his position in the campaign of 1920 as to America's duty to the old world, as he sees it.

He maintains that had the United States taken its position as an aide in the adjustment of affairs abroad following the war, conditions now prevailing over there could not have developed. The remainder of the civilized world has been unable to understand America's position. Under the present administration there is nothing like a semblance of a foreign policy. Cox also informs his Kentucky audiences concerning the "benefits" of the Fordney-McCumber tariff law, designed to aid the corporations rather than the farmer and other similar producers.

There is nothing in the Cox addresses to indicate sour grapes as a result of the defeat he suffered in 1920 as his party's candidate for president. He is simply maintaining his position, so clearly defined three years ago. The adjustment of economic affairs abroad cannot be accomplished without America's aid, he declares. The longer the delay in accepting the responsibility, the greater will be the task.

Europe is a seething cauldron, a volcano of unrest, a smoldering fire, which may break forth into flames at any moment, in the opinion of Lloyd George, former prime minister of England, now touring America. Those who fondly believed that by voting the Republican ticket in 1920 they would be helping their country to evade a moral responsibility to Europe, are coming to see that what they believed then and what they know now are entirely different.

THE JOKER

WHAT do you think of a janitor with a salary of $10,500 a year? That's the income of James A. Howe, described by a Boston newspaper as the highest paid janitor in that city. Howe's salary is more than is received by the mayor of Boston or the governor of Massachusetts.

Here's the joker: Janitor Howe has to pay seven assistants out of his salary. He says this leaves him only about $45 a week. Howe isn't the only person who doesn't make as much money as appears on the surface. Around coal mines there are men whose "big pay" shrinks when they take out what it costs for the helpers, the powder they use, and so on.

We know a lawyer with an income of $30,000 a year. By the time he gets thru paying office rent, employees and other expenses of operation, we doubt if he has $10,000 a year left.

Another case is a physician who specializes with radium and the X-ray. He charges big fees. Before he has any "clear profit" for himself he has to figure rent, office expenses and interest on about $25,000 worth of radium and X-ray machinery.

We're all in much the same boat. Some have to dress expensively for their line of work, compared with the overalls they would wear in a plainer job. Many things we buy are really business expenses—including often our general standard of living. Men in certain positions have to maintain a certain "front." Their real income is what's left after deducting all these.

And then, finally, to know what we're really making, we have to figure it on the basis of the dollar's depreciated buying power.

WE ALL DISCUSS IT

MOST interesting topic of conversation, in the long run, is the weather. Probably because it's always doing the unexpected. Two odd angles on the weather:

The Far North is steadily getting warmer, tho very slowly, according to Dr. Walcott of Smithsonian Institution. In seven years the great Selkirk Glacier has retreated northward 1070 feet.

The other angle: Just as much snow falls now as when grandpa was a boy, the Weather Bureau finds by checking up the past. Seemed more then, for the snow that reached grandpa's shoulder in youth now reaches only to his knees.

BETTER BIRTH CONTROL

Within reasonable limitations, every individual can determine his own girth and weight. It is very simple. There is law against it. When a horse grows too fat his owner knows precisely what is the matter: too much feed, too little exercise. When a man or woman emulates the horse it requires horse sense to know what is the matter. Very few of us have it.

Overweight or superfluous flesh is a disease, which, as a general rule, is acquired or achieved. Nobody is born too fat. Few if any inherit obesity, tho we do derive or learn from our parents or other teachers or examples the habits or ways of living that bring obesity upon us. With certain debatable exceptions, we can decide for ourselves, first, how little we shall eat; second, how much exercise we shall take every day. These, dear children, it pains me deeply to say, are the determining factors which are usually under our own control.

Like most of the insidious degenerations or disease conditions which shorten life and produce anhedonia, obesity creeps upon its victim; it is hard to draw the line between normal or healthful accumulation of fat and pathological obesity. Perhaps the best guide we have is the experience of the great insurance companies, which indicate definitely that a moderate excess of weight in persons under 30 years of age is favorable to longevity and health and vigor, as we all know it is to good looks and hedonia or the capacity of life. On the other hand, insurance experiences as—certain—

In case of obesity associated with anemia (weak blood), or with arteriosclerosis or with high blood pressure or with heart muscle degeneration (fatty degeneration or myocarditis) or with diabetes or with nephritis (Bright's disease) it is better to leave the question of a reduction regimen to the judgment of one's own physician, but in the presence of any of these other degenerations or impairments an excess of weight is always a handicap which calls for a remedy. For such purpose it is plain that no set formula can be laid down without the knowledge of individual circumstances and requirements which the patient's physician has. (Copyright, 1923.)

JUST FOLKS

—BY EDGAR A. GUEST—

THOUGHTS ON HIS GOING TO SCHOOL

Time takes his toll in various ways And every man his portion pays; And every man must leave behind Sign posts for all who come to find, Sign posts to prove that he has known

The burdens of the older grown— That touch of care, this duty stern— And traveled on, new tasks to learn. The young of heart he seems to be, The stamp of Time is plain to see.

Take us today, a youthful pair Who'd pass for young folks anywhere; Our backs are straight, our muscles strong,

We fairly dance the way along; Our laughter still is just as gay As 'twas upon our wedding day, And yet, somehow, we're come to feel That Age is very close and real. The world at large we cannot fool, We have a son who goes to school!

This sign post, written first with tears, Now stands to mark the passing years, What tho we sham when strangers smile,

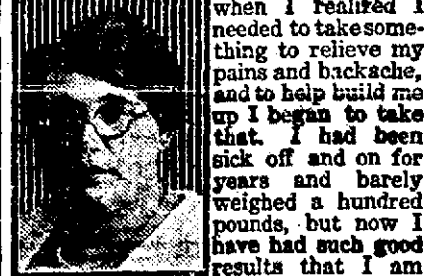

And practice little tricks of guile To show the world we still are young, We cannot check Time's tell-tale tongue.

No proud deception can detract From this sure witness to the fact, Our age is known by one fixed rule: We have a son who goes to school! (Copyright, 1923)

TO RELIEVE PAIN AND BACKACHE

Women May Depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I had heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that when I realized I needed to take something to relieve my pains and backache, and to help me to get on my feet, I began to take that. I had been sick off and on for years and barely weighed a hundred pounds, but now I have had such good results that I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to every one."—Mrs. J. J. Bunker, 2833 18th Ave. South, Minneapolis, Minn.

Find a True Friend "Every woman who values her health should be proud to have a true friend like the Vegetable Compound," says Mrs. W. E. Shaw, 327 Walnut Street, Chicago, Illinois. "I had female weakness so badly that I could not stand on my feet. Half of my time was spent in bed and I had pains in my back which were unbearable. I tried everything I could think of to help myself, and when a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began taking it at once. I recommend it without hesitation."

THIS LITTLE WORLD

SAN FRANCISCO

(BY CASUAL STROLLER)
NEW YORK — (Special) — A kiss in this city is worth ten times as much as a blow. At least that is what the courts in Brooklyn decided last week. A jury awarded one woman $5000 for a little kiss implanted on her cheek by a neighbor.

A judge made a man put up a $500 bond to be forfeited if he beats his wife again.

Another change in the cost of living here: A girl who tried to smoke a cigaret on a Staten Island ferry boat had to pay a $5 fine. Her escort, who smoked to keep her company, had to pay $10.

Brooklyn bridge, the Woolworth Building, and City Hall have been sold-time and again to gullible buyers. But there's a new one: An enterprising New Yorker sold the city caviar concession for $100. His sucker was a French Canadian who thought he got a good thing, for the Russian delicacy is popular here. But somehow others in the business won't quit. As a result the out-of-towner is out $100 and the in-towner is in jail.

Due to the unprecedented drought in the tropics, "Yes, We Have No Bananas" has become a real lament. So severe has the shortage become that the competition among local banana dealers is becoming keener every day. Last week a dealer offered a bunch for sale to two men. They were so desirous of buying that a quarrel began which ended with both men and the bunch bananas rolling in the gutter.

In Lima Theatres Today

(BY GERTRUDE GILLEAN)

"The Common Law" at Sigma Is Good Picture

More than passing interest in the motion picture, "The Common Law," which opened Monday at the Sigma theatre with Corinne Griffith, Elliott Dexter and Conway Tearle, has been shown by the many who have seen it. The picture is a former adaptation of the Robert W. Chambers novel which elicited much favorable comment. Clara Kimball Young was the star. The latest version, however, is much better.

The story of "The Common Law" is really that of Valerie West, a sweet and rather unsophisticated young girl who, suddenly thrown upon her own resources, sets out to earn her living, but with no tangible idea as to what she is best fitted to undertake. During the course of the work she calls on an artist, who, seeing her possibilities as a model, persuades her to pose for him.

"If Winter Comes" Opens Today at Lyric

"IF WINTER COMES," a motion picture version of A. S. M. Hutchinson's famous novel, opens today at the Lyric theatre and will hold the screen for three days instead of two, as was formerly announced. The film has been returned to the Lyric theatre because of the many requests of persons who were unable to see the previous showing.

"The Covered Wagon"

When old Jim Bridger, in "The Covered Wagon," which will be shown for four days at the Faurot beginning next Sunday, cuts the Indian arrow from the breast of the beautiful heroine, Molly Wingate, he knows exactly what he is doing and how to do it.

Jim Bridger was one of the most famous scouts and trappers in all the Northwest, back in the thirties and forties, and his name has an endearing place on the lips of the territory he explored and in the records of the conquest of the West. When General William H. Ashley of St. Louis organized his first company of trappers, in 1823, Jim Bridger was one of the most daring and resourceful of all his forty men.

The Passing Show

(BY CADIE) It has been the united efforts of the most important producers to lend their creative minds and their greatest efforts towards that class of entertainment best calculated to please the majority of theatregoers, and not the ultra-critical. This fact stands out in The Passing Show. In the past their efforts so far as extravaganza is concerned were centered in ensembles where the chorus predominated. In this one the chorus only lends splendor to scenes of allegorical significance, maintained thru the efforts of artists, in other words, the chorus is in the background.

From a critical point of view, singing choruses as the background of important extravaganza offerings of today and the responsibility for failure or success left with a few artists and preponderating scenic investment, brings the total in the abstract to what farce was a couple of decades ago. The chorus simply a frame work, without the ability of dancers or singers.

In the matter of beautiful scenery, clever individual dancers and all that could best please the eye and tickle the risibilities of humor, the Passing Show was all that could be imagined. It is immense in quantity; gorgeous in scenery and costumes; rich in artistic endeavor with clever comedians.

Willie Howard proved all that advance notices had said about him; as a matter of fact, so far as the comedy element was concerned, the whole show.

But so long as part and parcel of and tuitive systems until three was nothing natural about it. Over trained perhaps best expresses my meaning.

Leaving the singing on the basis of such to be expected, and with no reason why Fred Allen, should have been allowed to take up 45 minutes of expounding very ordinary vaudeville hash, the Passing Show was something good to look at. From a dancing standpoint it was more than one could expect. Willie Howard certainly got the best of the argument so far as popularity and being a cracking good comedian is concerned. He arrived a stranger in Lima and got away with the best wishes of an audience, that packed the Faurot to the very walls.

The exceptional supporting cast are Bryant Washburn, Doris May, Phyllis Haver, Hobart Bosworth, Miss DuPont, Harry Meyers and Wally Van.

A Lige Connolly comedy, "Three Strikes," and the Sigma News complete the splendid program.

The meticulous attention to details, the vividness and genuineness of each character, and the beauty of the scenes rate this special production far above the usual run of big specials.

Harold Lloyd in "Why Worry" will be the following attraction, opening a week's engagement on Friday.

over what is now Wyoming, Utah, North and South Dakota, Washington and Oregon; and the value of the skins taken in a season sometimes amounted to as much as two hundred thousand dollars. General Ashley made a large fortune from these enterprises.

Jim Bridger was one of the first white men to visit the Yellowstone, but like many explorers he met with disaster when he told of the wonders he had seen. His fellow-scouts admired him and loved him, but they could not bring themselves to believe his stories of the geysers. In 1837 Bridger built his fort on the Black Fork of Green River and became a trader, and it is at this place, and in this occupation, that he is to be seen in "The Covered Wagon."

such entertainments depend on good singing, it does seem strange that this part of The Passing Show was lacking. It cannot be said that the music is original or of any considerable quality, but what there is of it could certainly be improved. Today on the stage, there are so many voices, especially among women, who seemed to be overtrained; overeducated, if such a thing is possible. The leading soprano incumbered its naturalness by artificial tremolos.

WOMEN VOTERS TO HEAR OF ISSUES

A "CANDIDATES' meeting" will be observed at the regular semi-monthly gathering of the League of Women Voters to be held Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Public Library. This announcement was made Tuesday by Mrs. Gibson Dilline, president of the organization, and the meeting will be open to all interested voters of the city.

An invitation has been extended to each candidate up for election next Tuesday to appear at the meeting of the league for the purpose of stating his or her qualifications and platform. There will also be a well informed person present to explain the special issues up for consideration.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization and the officers hope by the means to enable men and women of the city to obtain information concerning the candidates and the issues that they may vote intelligently next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer and daughter, Miss Pauline, who have been traveling abroad since September, will arrive in New York City Saturday on board the S. S. George Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Koller and daughter, Betty Rose, will leave on Thursday for New York to greet the Wemmers upon their return.

Mrs. C. P. Oliver welcomed the members of the Ideal club to her home, 1155 Brice-av., for dinner and a social evening Monday. The table was artistically decorated with Halloween appointments and unique favors were given the guests, who were in costume. Games, fortune telling and contests made the evening a most enjoyable one.

Mrs. Loretta Homroy was an only guest, other than the eighteen club members present.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Fenton, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fenton, Lowell-av., for the past ten days, returned Tuesday to their home in Mogadore, Ohio.

Mrs. Ross Stapleton will welcome the members of the Martha Washington club to her home, 422 N. Metcalf-st., Thursday afternoon.

Bill Williams, her mother, Mrs. G. Williams, with Lelia Thorsbury, a divorcee, are trimming a Christmas tree in the Church of the Nativity, a fashionable place, society leader, comes in with Jerry Gooding, a "man-about-town," who is interested in Clara Jewett, the assistant rector of the church, he had favor because of his radical views.

Dr. Wadhams, the rector, drops in to attend a meeting of the wardens. Jerry proposes marriage to Clara. Clara has a talk with Daniel and accuses him of being too radical.

Now go on with the story.

"I want to be happy,"

"That's exactly what I want," he agreed happily.

"How can anybody be happy without money?" she asked gravely.

"How can anybody be happy with it?" he returned. "Anyway, do you think people are just happy because they have just enough?"

"In our day and age," Clara defended, "there's nothing worse than poverty. There's nothing more degrading than having to scrimp and save, and do without and keep up appearances. I've tried it—ever since my father died—and I know. I can't do it any longer and I won't."

"Clara!" I was a mood new to him. His exclamation startled her and she turned away. In a moment she was calmer.

"I don't want to quarrel with you, Dan," she said gently. "I just want you to be sensible. I love you, but love the good things of life, too. I like to be warm and comfortable."

"You can be sure of that," he promised.

"But that's only the beginning," she pursued. "I want good clothes, and furs, and my car, and money to spend when I like. I want my own house, and my own servants, and a husband who amounts to something in no different from other women of my class."

"I hoped you were," he admitted, half to himself.

"A year or two ago people thought you were going to be a bishop. Today you've made an enemy of every influential man in the church. All that may be very noble, but I'm not noble and I don't pretend to be. I don't feel any call to sacrifice myself for others, and I don't think you have any right to ask it."

"I do ask it, Clara," he insisted.

"You mean you're going on like this?" They were standing now and facing each other, she with an air of defiance, he with the calm resolution of conviction.

"I mean I can't give you expensive clothes, and servants, and a big house, while all about us people are hungry."

"What do you propose to give me?" she inquired rather scornfully.

"A chance to help," he answered.

She turned on him, looking sharply at him.

"I can't believe you're serious," she gasped. "You've always been a dreamer, but I can't believe you're going through with this fantastic nonsense!"

He was still calm. Perhaps it

"OUR ENGAGEMENT IS OFF!" SHE DECLARED.

was this strange control of which she was not capable that added to Clara's irritation.

"I've chosen a narrow path, dear," he said, "but I hoped it might be wide enough for us both."

"It isn't," she returned, finality in her tone. "With your means and opportunities, you're offering me what any bank clerk would give his wife. I thought you loved me, but you're utterly selfish, and I think, a little mad. You've a right to throw away your own life, but you've no right to throw away mine."

He lifted a hand in protest, but it was too late. She moved toward him, fumbling with her hands. By the time she had reached his side she had taken off her ring. She handed it to him with an impatient gesture. He paused a moment, then accepted it in mute abnegation.

"Our engagement is off!" she declared emphatically.

CHAPTER VII

A Friend in Need.

Clara paused a moment, expecting it seemed incredible that he would let her go that way. Surely he would say something. Surely he would see that he was wrong.

She waited for surrender, Gilchrist was silent. He stood staring at the ring which lay in the palm of his hand, shorn of its symbolism.

She turned, expecting that his hand would reach out to halt her. He did not move. Slowly she made her way toward the door. She paused a moment with her hand on the knob, waiting for his footsteps behind her. The sombre silence of the church seemed like a deafening roar in her ears.

She could not see Gilchrist's face. There was no answer in his attitude. She took a step forward, but still he did not move. Then she walked slowly to his side.

"Don't you think you're making a terrible mistake," she asked.

He looked up from the ring. His answer was in his eyes, and she read it there, at he repeated it.

"No," he said simply.

Clara lifted her head with a defiance that was characteristic of her other self. This time there was no hesitancy in her step. She strode to the door with resolution. Without looking back she opened it. Four numbers tingled in her brain. "Poverty—six—nine—four—two." No, that wasn't the exchange. How idiotic! It was Rhineland. She did not stop to close the door.

Gilchrist looked after her. He waited until the outer door had echoed her departure, then walked slowly over and closed the door.

Quietly he placed the ring in his pocket.

An organ began to play softly in the choir room. Its tremulous notes echoed thru the vast emptiness of the church.

The solitude of it all seemed to comfort him. He felt a companionship in it. There were not even shadows now. He and the darkness were alone. There was solace from the silence in the quiet music of the organ.

He crossed to the altar and stood looking up at the benign forms outlined in the painted windows. How far away they seemed! And yet how real! The Shepherd in the center—

He turned suddenly at the sound of a step. The church was wrapped completely in a darkness which his eyes could not penetrate.

Again came the step.

"Who's there?" Gilchrist inquired of the obscurity. An echo repeated the question mechanically, losing the tone of solicitude that was in Gilchrist's voice.

There was no answer, but Gilchrist sensed a presence.

"Are you looking for some one?" he asked again.

"Yes," came a voice. Gilchrist peered into the darkness.

"I'm the assistant rector, Mr. Gilchrist," he explained without raising his voice.

"I know you, Mr. Gilchrist," came the voice.

A sense of recognition came to Gilchrist. His air of inquiry disappeared.

"Oh, yes, I remember," he said. "You're the man who was cold. Can I do anything for you?"

"I think you can," said the man. Gilchrist had made out the form now, in outline near the door.

"Tell me," he asked sympathetically.

"Perhaps I can help you, too," parried the man.

Gilchrist remembered now. It was he who needed help. The irony of it all came to him. Here was he offering aid to another when he himself was needy—needy of comfort, of sympathy.

"My poor man," he said. "I wish you could." He clasped his hands. The remembrance of his despair impelled him to confide, even in this vague figure. "I was so sure of what I wanted to do," he said, "and now I begin to wonder whether it can be done."

It seemed as tho he were alone alone—alone with the darkness and the silence.

"It has been done," the man assured him.

"But in this day—in this practical world—can any man follow the Master?" Daniel put the question haltingly.

The answer came back positively.

"Why not? Is this day different from any other? Was the world never practical before? Is this the first time of conflict between flesh and spirit? If it could be done then why not now, and, if it was ever worth the doing, why not now?"

"But how?" It was Daniel who had turned seeker.

"We have been told before," reminded the man.

Gilchrist thought back over pages.

"Take no thought for the morrow," he read there. "Sell whatsoever thou hast and give to the poor—Love thy neighbor as thyself—Bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you. But if a man did those things today people would think him mad?"

"What does it matter?" asked the man, simply.

"He would lose everything!" said Gilchrist anxiously.

"And gain everything," was the answer.

"What good could one man do?"

"Why don't you try?" challenged the voice.

"The Master tried, and they crucified him," Gilchrist murmured. He was trembling now.

"Did they?" queried the man incredulously. "And if they did, what does that matter? Is a man dead whose ideal lives? 'Ye crucified me, but I am with ye always, even unto the end of the world.'"

Gilchrist stepped forward. His keen, eager eyes searched for the face of this form in the shadows.

"In God's name, who are you?" he asked intensely.

The man straightened.

"I am a Jew," he said simply.

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT, CONTINUED.

Here I am, little Marquise, talking to you entirely of my disappointments in some phases of John's character when I started to tell you about meeting Sydney Carton again. Meeting Sydney Carton, however, was a part of this surprising knowledge that I really do not know John, and that there was a man who knew him better than himself, who possibly did not always approve of him but who accepted him just as he was as a friend whom he would help and care for even when he knew he was being used by John to further his own end.

After Jack hung up the telephone he turned to me and said, "At last Leslie, old Syd has come to see us and he has invited us to dine with him and go to a show tonight."

"Why didn't you invite him out here, Jack?" I asked.

"Simply because I knew that if you two old introspective philosophers got together you would go mooning around among ideas that would be hard for me to follow—that I would not want to follow if I could. We can have a good dinner and see a good show. Syd is mighty good company when he doesn't take either you or himself too seriously. He is much like you, Leslie, in many ways."

"There must have been two entirely different egos mixed up in my cosmos. They fight all the time. I know in my heart, dearest, that old Syd and you are both much better than I and yet I feel there must have been something about me that isn't wholly unworthy, because if there was you wouldn't bother with me now, would you?"

And then, little Marquise, Jack came over and put his arms around me and pulled me close, close to him and whispered, "Dearest, I am sorry that I was such a contemptible hound as to send you to your father for that money, but honestly you must know that I was like a rat in a hole. Oh I know that you have been particularly decent to me in not twitting me of the fact that you told me to leave Harry Ellington alone, and down deep in my heart at the time I knew you were right, however much I might say to myself that you were narrow minded.

"Syd told me the same things, dear, and I may as well confess to you that I don't expect him to be as magnanimous as you. He is going to give me hell for going against his advice and he is going to throw in my face the fact that whenever I did take his advice I came out all right."

"Why, if I had taken Syd's advice before we were married, it would have saved me a lot of trouble at the time and ever since."

Jack caught his breath when he said this, little Marquise, and quickly changed the subject as tho he were afraid that I would ask him some question that he didn't want to answer.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Really and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make it full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic cough, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Mechanically able to keep pace with busy minds

Eversharp is a worker, a business pencil—America's favorite. It keeps going day after day with no other attention than an occasional loading. Many people carry two—one with black lead, one with the new colored lead.

Eversharp is comfortable to hold. It never tires the hand because it is perfectly balanced. The lead never wobbles—the exclusive rifled tip grips it like a vice. You know when to put in a new lead—the automatic index tells how much is left in the barrel. New leads are found under the cap. So is the handy eraser. Eversharp features can't be copied.

The all metal Wahl Pen is a writing innovation, a fountain pen improvement that makes it a worthy companion for Eversharp. The barrel holds more ink. Wahl Pen cannot crack or split. It is beautiful. It is durable. Wahl Pen will last a lifetime.

Wahl Pen and Eversharp are matched in gold and silver. Buy both. Eversharp, $1 to $10; Wahl Pen, $4 to $10. Solid gold at higher prices. Look for the name on each. Wahl Pens in rubber are the finest rubber pens made, $2.50 up.

As A Matter of Fact

BY HARRY BRADBURY
Sports Editor.

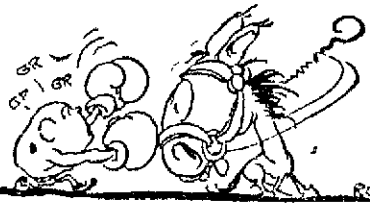

Keener rivalry could not have existed in the world's series than the game played between Delphos and Lima Sunday. Because of the decisive defeats that Delphos had suffered at the hands of the Lima team, as well as the easy victories the Independents had gained over the remainder of their rivals, they were in for sweet revenge, and so in signing several noted big league players to play the locals under the Delphos banner, they chuckled in ecstatic glee; visualizing a sure victory. It would generally be supposed that victory would perch on their banner, especially with the great Uble in the box—the best pitcher in the American league, with among a few of the most noted players in both leagues to back him up. Just the best laid plans of mice and men oft gang aglee. Delphos returned home with hopes blighted, locals shattered, sadder and wiser. In all the principal cause.

NOT A BARNSTORMING TRIP

I was under the impression until I found different, that Delphos had happened on a barnstorming trip of the Uble players. The truth of the matter was that all of the players live within easy access of Lima. Uble and O'Neill live in Cleveland, Everett Scott at Auburn, Ind., about 20 miles from Fort Wayne; "Bubbles" Hargrave in Fort Wayne, Wambegans home proper is in Fort Wayne, where his father is professor in the Lutheran college in that city. It would be possible to get a great team of ballplayers within a radius of 150 miles of Lima.

SNAPPY SPORTS

Harold Grange, Illinois, leads Western Conference scorers with 9 touchdowns.

Miller and Maher of Notre Dame are next with 7 each while Crowley, Notre Dame with 3 touchdowns and 9 points after touchdowns is also in select list.

French Olympic committee favors letting Molla Mallory take part in games next year despite international committee's ruling.

George Uble, Indians' pitching ace, won more games and pitched more games and innings than any other pitcher, appearing in the box 50 times for 359 1-3 innings.

Sig Haugdahl, at Waco, Tex., breaks two half-mile track records, driving mile in .55 and two miles in 1.55.

Willho Hoppe, champion, beats Frick Hagelacher of Germany in first match of world's 152 ballkline billiard tournament at New York, 500 to 424 in 26 innings.

CALIFORNIA GETS FOUR NET STARS ON HONOR ROLL?

SAN FRANCISCO—Experts here predict that four Californians will be listed among the first ten in the national ranking of tennis players this year.

They are expected to be William M. Johnston, who is certain to rank second to William Tilden, Howard Kinsey, Robert Kinsey and Harvey Snodgrass, who appear to have earned sixth, seventh and ninth places respectively.

The others, including Tilden, will probably be R. Norris Williams, Vincent Richards, and Francis T. Hunter, third, fourth and fifth; Carl Fischer, eighth, and Manuel Alonso, tenth.

DON'T HUNT COON TILL NOV. 15

If you figure on going coon hunting Nov. 1, as in past years, don't do it, is the advice given hunters by John T. Cotner, clerk of the courts, the man who outfits sportsmen of Allen-co with hunting licenses.

Hunters who start the 'coon season on Thursday he says may land in the hoosegow. Altho the game laws printed on the back of the licenses, gives open season for raccoons, from Nov. 1 to Feb. 1 inclusive, Cotner says it's all wrong.

The last legislature shortened the season 15 days, and no hunting can be done until Nov. 15. 'Coon hunters in this section of the state fought the law, but were unsuccessful. Now all they can do Cotner says is to tie up their coon hounds until Nov. 15.

Master Minds Of Football Concentrated On Coming Clashes Which Means Much

CHICAGO—Two master minds of football are being concentrated this week on the perfection of opposing gridiron machines, the clash of which Saturday will go a long way toward determining the Western Conference championship. Alonzo Stagg, veteran coach of the University of Chicago and Bob Zuppke, crafty mentor of Illinois, are the leaders, with Zuppke having a homecoming crowd of 60,000, intent upon a victory over an ancient rival, to satisfy.

Michigan and Iowa, both of which came out of last week's games in good shape, will put on an interesting match Saturday second in importance to the Chicago-Illinois fray. Iowa gave a display of strength by easily defeating Ohio which causes considerable worry in the Michigan camp where championship aspirations are held high.

The Minnesota eleven is reported to be in good condition as it starts training for Northwestern. Northwestern was an easy victim for Illinois and is expected to succumb to the Gophers.

Notre Dame's strong non-conference team runs against the Purdue eleven Saturday. The Boilermakers gave an exhibition against Chicago that lends interest to that match. Indiana and Hanover will engage in a contest that has little attraction in the Big Ten.

Wisconsin is resting this week after its scoreless game with Minnesota last Saturday. The Badgers are getting into trim for the Illinois game, two weeks hence.

Forbes Comments on Lowered Prices of Many Issues

FALL OFF FROM YEAR AGO

Railroads Show Declines of From 20 to 40 Points

(BY E. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK (Special)—Returning from a round of interviews with all classes in western and middle western states, the first thing which impresses one is the low prices quoted for most stocks as compared with a year ago.

With the exception of wheat growers and some stock raisers practically every group throughout the western half of the country is either moderately or enthusiastically optimistic.

Wage earners are doing very well, and as a rule, feel quite satisfied with the high pay they are receiving. The copper mining people are not satisfied with the prices obtainable for their product, but even so, employment has been increasing in the mining regions.

But when we return to New York's most discussed barometer, the stock market, what do we find? Representative railroad stocks show losses, as compared with a year ago, of as much as twenty, thirty and even forty points.

Will the bright prospects of desirably helpful development in Europe prove influential enough to stem this downward movement in stocks?

TEAM RUNS AWAY, WRECKS AUTO

Taxi Cab Demolished in Early Morning Accident

Runaway team of horses—played havoc with four parked automobiles on S. Main-st. Monday afternoon. The team, owned by F. Scarf, of Harrod, was hitched at the rear of Spikes' hardware store, S. Main-st.

Automobile driven by L. C. Wessler, 307 Flinders-av., was damaged in a collision with an automobile said to have been parked at Second-st. and S. Johns-nd without a tail light.

NEW SUBDIVISION IS IN SIGHT

City Will be Asked to Annex Section on Marion-rd

C. W. Bailey, a real estate and insurance operator in Lima, has tentative plans for another large subdivision to be brought into the city some time within a year. If he can get proper sewer and street connections, he told city officials during conferences with them Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning.

He owns a tract of land on Marion-rd beyond the Hardin Park and Holdridge subdivisions which he is anxious to develop, he told officials. He also plans, he said, to dedicate a portion of his land, near the water works, to the city for a public park.

He has asked the city commissioners to go out and inspect his land sometime at their convenience, but no date has been fixed for the visit, officials said.

MRS. MILDRED SAWMILLER, DIES AT HER HOME HERE

Mrs. Mildred Sawmiller, 65, widow of Isaac Sawmiller, died Tuesday night at her home, 612 W. Kibby-st., after a prolonged illness from complications of diseases. She was born in Chillicothe, June 12, 1856.

Surviving are five sons, S. H., C. R., B. H., F. R., and Daniel Bice, and three daughters, Mrs. Flora Daniels, Mrs. Anna Cown and Lella Bice, all residing in Lima. One brother, four sisters and 15 grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at Grace M. E. church in charge of Rev. D. N. Kelly. Interment in Amanda cemetery.

CHARLES RHODA DIES IN BATTLE CREEK, MICHIGAN

Charles Rhoda, 64, one of the founders of Rhoda Brothers Body & Manufacturing Co., which was organized 50 years ago, died at Battle Creek, Mich., Wednesday at 4 a. m. following an illness of complications. He left Lima about three weeks ago for Battle Creek for treatment. His address in Lima was 213 S. Pine-st.

Charles Rhoda was well known in Lima business circles. He and his brother William, who died a year ago last February, were among the first wagon makers and blacksmiths in Lima.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Freda Rhoda, three sons, Harry, Walter and Carl, of Lima; two daughters, Mrs. Lone John of Defiance, and Irene at home; one brother, Louis, and one sister, Mrs. Jacob Neubright.

The body will be brought to Lima for burial. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

CANDIDATES TO TALK TO WOMEN VOTERS OF LIMA

Each of the four candidates for city commission, candidates for the school board and proponents and opponents of various issues will meet with the league of women voters Friday evening, it was announced at city hall Wednesday.

Needs of the city financially will be explained by C. A. Bingham, who will advocate the three mill levy. Purposes of other special levies will be explained by speakers.

Backers of Moyer and Rankin are said to have held a conference at a local manufacturing plant Tuesday night and the committee of 200, which is behind Breckenridge and Harley and the three mill levy will meet Wednesday.

AUTO DRIVERS USING ALCOHOL IN RADIATORS TO PREVENT FREEZING

Cold weather that struck Lima Tuesday and continued Wednesday caused scores of automobile owners to put alcohol in their radiators to prevent freezing. Many garages in the city report large quantities of alcohol sold during the past 24 hours.

Garage men say that for temperatures 15 or 18 degrees above about one-third of a gallon of alcohol is sufficient to prevent freezing while temperatures below 15 degrees at least half a gallon should be put in the radiator.

$40 IN FINES ASSESSED IN LIMA CRIMINAL COURT

Fines aggregating $40 were assessed in criminal court Wednesday by Judge Neil R. Poling. W. M. Lampher, 123 S. Scott-st., was sentenced to pay a $25 fine for his third appearance on an intoxication charge.

Harold Gehrig, 910 S. Main-st., arrested at McCullough's lake on an intoxication charge, was ordered to pay $15 to the court.

WON'T RECOGNIZE SEPARATISTS

Britain Addresses France, Belgium of Her Stand

LONDON — (Associated Press) — Great Britain has formally advised France and Belgium that it cannot recognize the separatist movement in the Rhineland or the establishment of an individual state in Cologne or other parts of the occupied area.

BERLIN — (United Press) — The Bavarian government has decided to retain former Federal Dictator Von Loosow despite Chancellor Stresemann's demand that he be dismissed, Munich dispatches said today.

Von Loosow was appointed commander of the Bavarian reichswehr when following his refusal to disband troops in the area were ordered to take an oath of loyalty to the state instead of the reich.

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Another attack against the Hughes proposal for a conference of experts to determine Germany's capacity to pay reparations was made today in a statement by Senator Dill McCormick, Illinois.

"Since British and French as well as American public men have dared to doubt the certain success of the proposed economic conference in Europe let us ask those who willfully misconstrue their doubts and abuse them, to face the truth," McCormick declared.

Woman Demands $400 She Loaned Former Husband

Can a woman separated from her husband win back money given him during the time they were living in harmony?

Mrs. Vida M. Wilson, hospital attendant, raised the question in common pleas court Wednesday in an action for $400 instituted against William T. Long, her former mate.

The money, it is alleged, was loaned to Long during the time they were married.

Later the litigants disagreed and a separation and divorce resulted.

Long, according to his former spouse has several times refused to restore the cash.

She asks the court to award judgment for the sum named.

TAX ACTS HIT BY DONAHEY

Issues Statement Against Taft and Albaugh Measures

COLUMBUS — (United Press)—Governor Donahey today issued his promised statement against the Taft and Albaugh acts to be voted on by the people November 6.

The governor questions the motives of the champions of the measures in their effort to prevent the nominations from being subjected to referendum.

He also recalls "trading and log-rolling" which he says went on in the general assembly when the bills were up for passage over his veto. Donahey says that if the measures were so meritorious there was no need for blue activities to get them thru.

The Taft act is "the greatest tax relief that has been passed in the history of Ohio," according to the governor. He further objects to allowing taxing officials to raise the rate without vote of the people.

The Albaugh act, the governor believes, in changing the assessment of taxes, would permit more notices to be played, create new armies of job-holders, and "increase the salaries of the county auditor, prosecuting attorney and president of the board of commissioners."

OBITUARY
Mary Eliza, daughter of Allen and Rachael Yeakum, was born in Jackson-twp, Allen-co., O., Oct. 5, 1888.

She was united in marriage to Philip Wingate, Oct. 16, 1887, and to this happy union eight children were born. The family circle was first broken Jan. 15, 1897, when a son, Wilbur, answered the call of the grim reaper.

Mrs. Wingate was a loving and loyal mother to her family, who now feel keenly her departure. She was a member of the A. I. U.

She was converted in her teens and united with the M. E. church at West Point, her membership later was transferred to Liberty Chapel, and about three years ago to Wesley M. E. church, Lima. During these years she has been a devoted follower of her Lord and Master. Her great delight was to be in the Lord's service, until her health failed which compelled her to stay at home. Even then she was interested in the church and often asked members of the family the text used by the minister in the various services.

We are not mourning as those who have no hope for our sister had for the anchor that held to the very last.

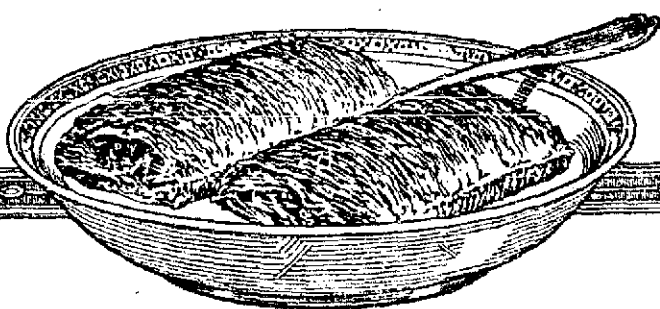

In the past nine weeks she suffered intensely but was patient thru it all and many times said she was just waiting for the Lord to call. Her late sickness was a remarkable lesson of patience, love and devotion to the religion of Jesus Christ.

She slipped away Friday morning Oct. 26, 1923, her age being 35 years and 21 days.

She leaves to mourn their loss her devoted husband, seven children: Clarence of Eastland, Texas; Earl, Eldora, Kansas; Iva Orwig, Toledo, O.; Willard of Lima; Ralph, Lloyd and Lloyd at home, four grandchildren, five sisters, Millie Williams, Emma Wingate, Medie Thomas, all of Lima; Nora Clark and Addie Yuakum, both of Beavertown, O., and one brother, Clom Yuakum also of Beavertown, besides a host of friends to mourn the loss of a loving friend.

MASONS MOVE ON VIRGINIA

Lay Cornerstone of $4,000,000 Memorial Tomorrow

TRIBUTE TO WASHINGTON

100,000 Members of Order Expected to Attend

ALEXANDRIA, Va. — (United Press)—With President Coolidge and other high dignitaries of the United States government present, and in the midst of a veritable army of Free Masons, the corner stone of the great George Washington Masonic National Memorial—estimated to cost $4,000,000—is to be laid here tomorrow on Arlington Ridge, commanding a magnificent view of the national capital.

This will be the outstanding event in the history of Free Masonry in America. It has been estimated that more than 100,000 Free Masons from all parts of the United States will be present at the laying of the corner stone of the memorial, which is to be erected on Shooters Hill of the Arlington Ridge, here.

The corner stone is to be laid at 10 o'clock in the morning. The ceremony will be in special communication at 10 o'clock at the old Masonic temple here, from whence the procession will start toward Shooters Hill. The procession will consist of the Grand Lodge of Virginia and guests, the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Virginia and guests, the Supreme Councils of the Scottish Rite for the northern and southern Masonic jurisdictions will be represented by their sovereign grand commanders.

PRESIDENT AND JUDGE TAFT
President Coolidge and his cabinet will be escorted to the Memorial building by Leon M. Abbott, sovereign grand commander of the Supreme Council, 33d degree, northern Masonic jurisdiction; former Senator George E. Chamberlain of Oregon and Barton Smith, past sovereign grand commander of the Supreme Council, northern jurisdiction. Wm. Howard Taft, former president, and now Chief Justice of the United States, will have as his escort Judge A. S. Tompkins, grand master of Masons in New York; Captain John H. Cowles, sovereign grand commander of the Supreme Council, 33d degree, southern jurisdiction, and Past Grand Master George M. Napier, Atlanta, attorney general of Georgia.

Conrad V. Dykeman of Brooklyn, N. Y., Imperial potentate of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, with his own escort, will be taken in charge by the potentates and officers of local and neighboring Shrine Temples.

STRIKE DECLARED IN DEFIANCE OF BERLIN

BERLIN—In the teeth of a military decree prohibiting it, a general strike was proclaimed throughout Saxony today as a protest against the use of the mailed fist by the federal government.

Proclamation of the strike had been forecast for more than a week if the Stresemann cabinet carried out its threat to oust the Zeigner cabinet of Saxony for communist tendencies.

General Mueller, federal dictator for Saxony prohibited the strike.

Dr. Heinze, as civil commissar for Saxony prohibited the meeting of the Saxon diet and General Mueller followed this up by the arrest of some of its communist members.

Keeping Millions Free From Colds and La Grippe

W. H. HILL'S LIFE WORK

Colds cause more illness than any other human ailment. Realizing this 50 years ago, W. H. Hill determined to develop a quick-acting scientifically correct cold and la grippe remedy.

Years of research brought success. Mr. Hill discovered a most remarkable formula. He backed it with energy, faith, integrity and a name that meant "satisfaction or money back."

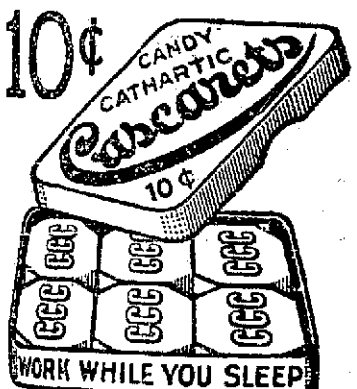

Today more than 4,000,000 families—one-fifth of America's population—use and recommend Hill's Cascara Bromide Quinine.

The formula has never been changed in a quarter century. What Hill has done for millions, it can do for you. Demand red box bearing Mr. Hill's portrait. All druggists, 30 cents.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15¢ and 30¢.

NO MATTER WHERE YOU LIVE IT IS VITAL TO YOU THAT LIMA BE WELL GOVERNED

East Sider, West Sider, North Sider, South Sider—each and every one is or should be all for Lima. No part of the city can grow alone—No part of the city can afford to see another part neglected.

Under the Commission Form of Government for the first time in Lima, every city official represents every part of the city and not a single ward. The advantages of this have been outstanding. After years of neglect the East and South sides secured improvements for lack of which the whole city suffered. More money has been spent in public improvement in the South and East sides than elsewhere, not because they were located in that particular geographical section, but because they were outstanding requirements of our city development.

Sectionalism has no place in the greater Lima now developing. Of the two commissioners endorsed by the Committee of 200, one, Mr. Harley, has his business located in East Lima; the other, Mr. Breckenridge, is associated with Lima's greatest industry, distinctly South Side in every feature—The Locomotive Works. These accidents of location have nothing to do, however, with the Committee of 200 endorsement of these gentlemen. It is because they are able, broadly experienced, unselfish public servants who have labored early and late to carry through improvements in which all Lima has benefited that we again urge every voter to vote for—

Connie Talmadge's "Dulcy" Coming To Sigma

"No problem plays" for me," says Constantine Talmadge. Connie's latest film, "Dulcy," which will be seen at the Sigma next week, is a comedy based on modern life and is filled with modern young people. None of the "problem trimmings," so common in plays of today, cast their shadows across the action or the characters. Yet "Dulcy" has its joys and sorrows, and Constantine Talmadge runs the gamut of emotions from laughter to tears.

It is said to be one of the clever-

"Why Worry" With Harold Lloyd Opens At Lyric

In the veins of the young men humor runs strongest. The great comedians of the screen are all youngsters, comparatively. And the men who furnish them with the material that makes their stries funny on the screen are young fellows.

This is particularly true of the Harold Lloyd organization, which gives to the screen another great comedy production in "Why Worry" which opens an eight day engagement at the Lyric Theatre Thursday. Lloyd himself is still under thirty—twenty-nine to be exact. Sam Taylor, who heads his scenario staff, is only twenty-seven. Fred Newmeyer, who co-directs with Taylor, is the oldest of the troupe, being thirty-five. Ted Wilde and Tim Whelan who assisted in furnishing the multitude of gags which are to be found in "Why Worry" are each thirty years old, but of wide experience thru their

Vaudeville At Faurot

THE usual Keith vaudeville will begin three days engagement at Faurot, starting Thursday afternoon and ending Saturday night. For the reason that the most prominent picture of these days, "The Covered Wagon," will begin a four day engagement Sunday matinee, the vaudeville was necessarily limited to three days, where, ordinarily it would have held over Sunday.

The company opening Thursday matinee, is selected by the Keith offices as one to please all tastes. The opening act is Oscar Martin company headed by this well known comedian in an act called "Supreme Surprise." He claims a company just as clever as himself, which should be sufficient to make the act go over big. It is a standard act on the Keith line.

Paul Rahn & Co., is another well known act. In the beginning Rahn and his partner as birds; one an owl and another a chicken, after which Rahn assumes the character of a cook, in which he serves up comedy in the most delicately concocted dishes. It is as funny an act for the children as the grown-ups.

Hallowe'en Celebration At New Orpheum

A HALLOWE'E celebration will be held at the 7:30 performance Wednesday night at the New Orpheum theatre in addition to the regular musical comedy production, "The Broadway Follies." Prizes will be awarded to the person wearing the most beautiful, most novel and most comical costume. The audience will act as the judge.

Bringing Up Father At Faurot

Wednesday evening will see the familiar "Bringing Up Father" at the Faurot. The entertainment is fashioned after the celebrated cartoons of the same name. There is no denying the fact that there are plenty of fun possibilities to be gotten from the wholesome comedy emanating from the theme, and it is promised that they have been taken advantage of and whipped into a really clever entertainment by dramatist and directors. A lively, scintillating, pretentious, good dancers and singers are promised, while the comedy element is taken care of by comedians and principals who are able and competent. Beautiful and appropriate scenery will enhance an otherwise pleasing entertainment. The seat sale is large.

best comedies made by the popular Constantine. It gives her ample opportunity to display her versatility and furnishes her with a vehicle admirably adapted to her type of comedy.

ten years on the American stage. Walter Lundin, head cameraman, is thirty-one and rated high among the leading motion picture photographers.

Youth goes to make "pep." And without that essential ingredient it is difficult to make pictures funny.

Lloyd himself is the essence of enthusiasm. He is just the type of boy he appears to be on the screen, for his pictures are a reflection of no one but himself. He actually lives his screen productions. This is an actual fact that when applied to Lloyd.

Youth has no time to be serious, except when the gags are coming very laboriously, and even then it is the nimble-witted minds of Lloyd and the young fellows surrounding him who pull these difficult situations.

musical skit, aided by Jack and Lucille Hayes, the Ogden Sisters and Hilda Chapman. The act is a touch of the very latest songs, clever dancing and good comedy, all blended into a delightful entertainment. Besides this most of them are very clever musicians and use during the act a variety of instruments. Hilda Chapman is said to be a violinist of more than the usual ability.

Holmes and Holliston present a comedy classic, with a "full length" stage laugh. It is an act of merry banter, snappy sayings and catchy songs, and the best of all they have the habit of making people laugh.

The bill is concluded with the Portia Mansfield dancers. This is one of the largest and most elaborate dancing acts in vaudeville. There are eight members in the company. There is no use denying the fact, but classic dancing is all the vogue at this time. The Mansfield dancers delve deep in the realms of the classics, including Schubert and Beethoven for inspiration. The girls are finished dancers; the costumes are in keeping with rich and elaborate settings.

Hornsby May Be Giant In 1924

(BY HENRY FARREL)

NEW YORK — (United Press)

—Rogers Hornsby, the National League's highest rated ball player will work in the uniform of the New York Giants next summer, if he is not retained by the St. Louis Cardinals, it was learned from a reliable source.

Demanding players only in offers for the champion batsman. The Cards have eliminated from the running every club in the league but the Giants. No other manager but McGraw is prepared to give the Cardinals what they think Hornsby is worth without wrecking their club.

When the Cubs failed to interest the Cardinals in an offer for Hornsby the only rival of the Giants in the bidding for the star second baseman was removed. The Cubs could not offer pitchers and Branch Rickey figures that to benefit the Cards by getting rid of Hornsby, he needs a couple of good pitchers.

The Giants will not even admit that they want Hornsby. It is certain that he would be a valuable addition to the team not so much because the best batter in the league would help any club, but for the reason that the Giants are sorely in need of a drawing card to compete with the Yankees who now possess the world's championship in addition to Babe Ruth.

The Giant office also denies that any offers have been made for Hornsby, but it is understood that the Cards know what they can get from the Giants thru an offer made some time ago.

McGraw, it is understood, is willing to part with either Bill Ryan or Jack Bentley, that he will toss in one of his extra outfielders and either Jackson or Maguire, two of the most promising young infielders in the league.

Jeff Pfeffer, the big former Brooklyn pitcher, who is on the outs with Rickover, may also be included in the deal. The Giants are badly in need of new pitching material and while Pfeffer is no youngster, McGraw is said to believe he still has some good pitching in him.

Noted Matmen Matched To Wrestle

M. Charleson, wrestling promoter, who is responsible for the last two shows that have been given at the Orpheum, has arranged one of the best in the wrestling point of view, that has ever been pulled in Lima, to take place next Tuesday.

In justice to the light-heavy division of wrestlers, in accordance with the claim made by The Lima News that William Demetral was out of that division, and that by virtue of his weight he should not be classed as the champion light-heavyweight, Charleson has recognized this claim, and has been looking for a heavy-weight to take on Demetral. He has been successful in matching "Strangler" Yankee Joe, who has been after Demetral for some time. This fellow weighs about 215 pounds. The "Strangler" manager Milton is anxious to have his bout come off in Lima and will wager all the way from $100 to $500 that Yankee Joe can beat Demetral.

"Strangler" Joe, is a New Yorker, and stands undefeated by any wrestler. He is on his way to the coast.

The challenge of "Young Gotch," of Chicago, to Fox, of Cleveland for $100, has been accepted by the Cleveland wrestler, and this match will be decided at the show to be given at the Orpheum theatre Tuesday evening. This should be an interesting match. Both men will weigh in the neighborhood of 175 pounds.

Fox showed his skill against Demetral at the last show, altho outmatched because of weight. He is a game and clever wrestler.

As A Matter of Fact

BY HARRY BRADBURY
Sports Editor.

Favored fighters, few; popular champions, still scarcer. Why: very difficult to answer, maybe an antipathetical wave beginning nowhere and ending nowhere. There is one thing certain there have been just as great boxers that never get a whack at championship honors as those that came out on the big end of the horn.

Marvin Hart was a great fighter, won the title of champion of the world, fought the best boxers of his time including a variety of scrappers and rough and tumble non de scripts that ever graced or disgraced the squared circle, and still if you look the records over you will note that the name of Hart bears little significance.

It was James J. Jeffries who relinquished the championship to Jack Root and Marvin Hart; he wasn't certain to whom the title rightfully belonged, so these two fought for the title at Reno, Nevada, July 3, 1902. Jack Root, a Chicago pug, was far the most popular, why it was hard to understand, probably thru a preponderance of newspaper comment. Hart came out of Jefferson county, Kentucky, a short distance from Louisville, Root had two or three millions of a motley population to draw popularity from; Hart a few hundred thousand. This might be an answer to the problem so far as fame is concerned. But he was a thoroughbred so far as the human is concerned, stout hearted like the thoroughbred horse.

This fight, from a sporting point of view was as important as the one just finished. It was of the same importance, and should be more to the liking of true sport, because the purse was within reason—$5,000, divided 65 per cent to the winner and 35 per cent to the loser. There was no commercial or financial aspect, it was within the bounds of sane sport. There were present about 4,000 spectators, far short of the record crowd attending big fights today.

JEFFRIES WAS REFEREE

James J. Jeffries was the referee. The big boiler maker who had won his enviable reputation by defeating about all the good heavyweights, told before the commencement of this bout, that he had retired permanently from the ring, that he had relinquished the title to the winner of this battle and the man who did win would be entitled to the championship of the world.

It was a hard battle and one of the most vicious bouts in the history of glove contests. Root was one of those typical 175 pound boxers, quick as a flash, could stand a world of punishment, in other words "an insulated jaw," and was considered one of the very best boxers of his time. He was finished thru an experience of half a hundred battles and a great ring general. Hart was 200 pounds heavier than Root and besides was a master at all the tricks of boxing and able to stand terrific punishment.

And from the first sound of the going Root waded into Hart with a determination to finish him quick, as possible and it was a tight go to see. There was an air of confidence on the part of Root and his followers which made the odds on his winning as high as three and three and a half to one.

The men you study this boxing game the worse these limited round bouts will look, except where an actual knockout occurs. They are farcical. If this battle had been for ten rounds instead of a finish Root would have been given the decision, because he was punishing Hart and seemingly getting the best of every round. But the boy from Old Kentucky was far from beaten. He was meeting blow for blow, and there were many furiously hard punches given and received by both men.

It seemed to the Root followers that the Chicago boy had the battle well in hand up to the twelfth and deciding round when Hart won with a single punch.

In the last round they both fought into a clinch and began "pawing and roughing." Jeffries split them apart, but again they fought at close range and to a clinch and again Jeffries separated them. Hart bored in and ripped his right up and under and a little to the left of Root's heart and he went to the floor and was counted out. If twenty seconds had been the required time instead of ten, it would have made no difference. It was a terrific punch, it was more than enough. Hart had won the championship of the world.

A long distance spectator of this contest was John L. Sullivan the Great, from Oakland, Calif., he wired Jack Root, because he was confident that he would win, that he would match Jim McCormick against him for the championship and $2,500 a side. Even Sully ignored the boxing abilities of Hart, Jack Johnson and George Gardner were at the ring side and challenged the winner. Hart, of previous won from Lil Arthur, at Fresno, March 28, of this same year in 20 of the hardest rounds any boxer ever experienced.

And so while Hart fought, won and lost against the pick of heavyweights, he was always at the little end of the horn of popular boxers.

Elks Tourney Outcome Of Illinois, Iowa And Michigan Games Hold Attention Of Grid Circle

CHICAGO — While the Illinois-Chicago game Saturday afternoon is holding the principal attention of Big Ten football circles this week, there is a likelihood that the encounter between Michigan and Iowa may have a bearing equally as important on the outcome of the conference season.

Coach Yost has a veteran team to send against the Hawkeyes. Iowa, however, twice has been tested against strong teams and has an advantage in experience. It is probable, according to reports from the two institutions that both teams be able to send their full strength to the field Saturday.

Minnesota's hospital list has been cut down until Gross is the only regular out of play. He may be able to start against Northwestern Saturday.

When Wisconsin gets into play it will have an attack different from that displayed in the scoreless tie with Minnesota last Saturday. The Badgers are working on the forward pass, preparing to surprise Illinois on November 10.

POLAR BEARS BUSY
ADA, Ohio — (Special to The Lima News) — Northern's varsity spent an hour Monday afternoon in a drizzling rain practicing signals and going through a light workout in preparation for Saturday's game with Akron here.

"Shorty" Barrek, who went out for the team at the outset of the season, but was forced out of the game temporarily with a leg injury, was back in harness. He took the right half position on the varsity during practice. He will probably get into the game against Akron.

Altho a number of the players still complain of injuries, none of the ailments are serious enough to keep them out of the coming game with the exception of "Cliff" Kerschner. This stellar halfback, while playing against Balwin-Walace, under a handicap of three broken ribs, received an injury to his leg which will probably keep him out of the major portion of the Akron game.

Kerschner's playing this season has stamped him as an almost certain selection for the all Ohio team. He has scored in every game so far this season, making a total of eight touchdowns in the five games played. Four of these touchdowns were scored against Ohio Conference teams. Should he not be in condition to play Saturday his loss will handicap the Polar Bears considerably.

Akron will come here fresh from its 17-0 victory over Mt. Union Saturday, and they will try to make this their second conference victory. The Northwestern, however, believe they have an equal chance to beat the Akron crew, and in so doing, be given a boost toward the top of the Ohio Conference standing.

Ralph Lawrence, former Lima Southwestern who went out for the freshman team last week, was seriously injured and is out of the game permanently.

WOOSTER MEETS RESERVE
WOOSTER, Ohio — (Special to The Lima News) — The Wooster College football team met Reserve on Van Horn in a game Friday night. The Cleveland eleven always gives Wooster a hard battle regardless of the comparative strength of the two teams and so Coach Boles is preparing his team for a real struggle.

This game is also the Migration Day for Wooster and practically the entire student body will accompany the team to Cleveland for this game. Special cars are being chartered to accommodate the crowd of college students and fans who will trek to Cleveland.

The Fawcett club of Wooster will take their band to Cleveland. This organization has been responsible for the music at nearly every out of town game. They have guaranteed to have the college musicians there for this game.

Wooster came out of the hard 20-7 victory Cincinnati Bear Cats last weekend in good shape. Some of the men are nursing injuries which may keep them on the bench. They are being given only light work this week. Eran, the husky fullback, who did not get into the Cleveland game, will be ready by the end of the week.

Zev Starts The Autumn Stakes

NEW YORK — As a final preparation for his race with My Own Saturday, Zev, international year old champion, will start in autumn championship stakes at Empire City track Wednesday, an added attraction to the day's racing of the season in state.

His public trial coming out of his meeting with Admiral G. son's popular three year old in the "home town" stakes, $50,000, is expected to draw the best attendance of the year at Empire City. On handicap figures, Zev 120 pounds, scheduled to meet opponents at scale weight, appears has a walkaway for the $5,000 stake.

CINCINNATI — (Assoc Press) — Indications today that a field of four of the country's fastest three year olds will face the barrier in the La championship to be run at La Ky, Saturday.

My Own, Admiral Cary T. son's candidate was due to arrive in Cincinnati Wednesday. The Rialto was expected to carry the Greeneye colors $50,000 classic.

The Rancocas star, Zev, who defeated Panypus in the interna will remain in New York on day to run in the autumn championship at Empire City and was reach Lakonia on Friday.

In Memoriam, Carl Weiden Illinois Derby winner which only hope of the western contingent, was given a mild workout today.

JONES GETS LOVING C

WOOSTER, Ohio — "Sam Jones, famous pitcher of New York Yankees, was a great honor here last night when the "home town" folks and him and Mrs. Jones a banquet the clone of which "Sam" was presented
